consider it as mere surplusage.

15

4. The department shall cause the policy to be published in the code of state regulations.

When ordered by the court, interest shall 20 be allowed under subsection 2 of section 408.040. In addition to all other costs and fees allowed 21 by law, each prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney who takes any action to collect restitution shall collect from the person paying restitution an administrative handling cost. The cost shall 22 23 be twenty-five dollars for restitution of less than one hundred dollars and fifty dollars for 24 restitution of at least one hundred dollars but less than two hundred fifty dollars. For restitution 25 of two hundred fifty dollars or more an additional fee of ten percent of the total restitution shall be assessed, with a maximum fee for administrative handling costs not to exceed seventy-five 26 27 dollars total. Notwithstanding the provisions of sections 50.525 to 50.745, the costs provided 28 for in this subsection shall be deposited by the county treasurer into a separate interest-bearing 29 fund to be expended by the prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney. This fund shall be known 30 as the "Administrative Handling Cost Fund", and it shall be the fund for deposits under this 559.115. 1. Neither probation nor parole shall be granted by the circuit court between the time the transcript on appeal from the offender's [conviction] finding of guilt has been filed in appellate court and the disposition of the appeal by such court.

4 2. Unless otherwise prohibited by subsection 8 of this section, a circuit court only upon 5 its own motion and not that of the state or the offender shall have the power to grant probation to an offender anytime up to one hundred twenty days after such offender has been delivered to 6 the department of corrections but not thereafter. The court may request information and a 7 recommendation from the department concerning the offender and such offender's behavior 8 during the period of incarceration. Except as provided in this section, the court may place the 9 offender on probation in a program created pursuant to section 217.777, or may place the 10 11 offender on probation with any other conditions authorized by law.

12 3. The court may recommend placement of an offender in a department of corrections 13 one hundred twenty-day program under this subsection or order such placement under subsection 14 4 of section 559.036. Upon the recommendation or order of the court, the department of 15 corrections shall assess each offender to determine the appropriate one hundred twenty-day 16 program in which to place the offender, which may include placement in the shock incarceration 17 program or institutional treatment program. When the court recommends and receives placement 18 of an offender in a department of corrections one hundred twenty-day program, the offender shall 19 be released on probation if the department of corrections determines that the offender has 20 successfully completed the program except as follows. Upon successful completion of a program under this subsection, the board of probation and parole shall advise the sentencing 21

22 court of an offender's probationary release date thirty days prior to release. The court shall 23 follow the recommendation of the department unless the court determines that probation is not 24 appropriate. If the court determines that probation is not appropriate, the court may order the 25 execution of the offender's sentence only after conducting a hearing on the matter within ninety 26 to one hundred twenty days from the date the offender was delivered to the department of 27 corrections. If the department determines the offender has not successfully completed a one 28 hundred twenty-day program under this subsection, the offender shall be removed from the 29 program and the court shall be advised of the removal. The department shall report on the 30 offender's participation in the program and may provide recommendations for terms and 31 conditions of an offender's probation. The court shall then have the power to grant probation or 32 order the execution of the offender's sentence.

33 4. If the court is advised that an offender is not eligible for placement in a one hundred 34 twenty-day program under subsection 3 of this section, the court shall consider other authorized 35 dispositions. If the department of corrections one hundred twenty-day program under subsection 3 of this section is full, the court may place the offender in a private program approved by the 36 37 department of corrections or the court, the expenses of such program to be paid by the offender, 38 or in an available program offered by another organization. If the offender is convicted of a class 39 C, class D, or class E nonviolent felony, the court may order probation while awaiting 40 appointment to treatment.

41 5. Except when the offender has been found to be a predatory sexual offender pursuant 42 to section [566.125] 566.123, the court shall request the department of corrections to conduct a 43 sexual offender assessment if the defendant has been found guilty of sexual abuse when 44 classified as a class B felony. Upon completion of the assessment, the department shall provide to the court a report on the offender and may provide recommendations for terms and conditions 45 46 of an offender's probation. The assessment shall not be considered a one hundred twenty-day 47 program as provided under subsection 3 of this section. The process for granting probation to 48 an offender who has completed the assessment shall be as provided under subsections 2 and 6 49 of this section.

6. Unless the offender is being granted probation pursuant to successful completion of a one hundred twenty-day program the circuit court shall notify the state in writing when the court intends to grant probation to the offender pursuant to the provisions of this section. The state may, in writing, request a hearing within ten days of receipt of the court's notification that the court intends to grant probation. Upon the state's request for a hearing, the court shall grant a hearing as soon as reasonably possible. If the state does not respond to the court's notice in writing within ten days, the court may proceed upon its own motion to grant probation.

57 7. An offender's first incarceration under this section prior to release on probation shall 58 not be considered a previous prison commitment for the purpose of determining a minimum 59 prison term under the provisions of section 558.019.

60 8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, probation may not be granted pursuant to this section to offenders who have been convicted of murder in the second degree pursuant 61 62 to section 565.021; forcible rape pursuant to section 566.030 as it existed prior to August 28, 2013; rape in the first degree under section 566.030; forcible sodomy pursuant to section 566.060 63 64 as it existed prior to August 28, 2013; sodomy in the first degree under section 566.060; statutory 65 rape in the first degree pursuant to section 566.032; statutory sodomy in the first degree pursuant to section 566.062; child molestation in the first degree pursuant to section 566.067 when 66 classified as a class A felony; abuse or neglect of a child pursuant to section 568.060 when 67 68 classified as a class A felony; or an offender who has been found to be a predatory sexual 69 offender pursuant to section [566.125] 566.123; or any offense in which there exists a statutory 70 prohibition against either probation or parole.

559.117. 1. The director of the department of corrections is authorized to establish, as 2 a three-year pilot program, a mental health assessment process.

3 2. Only upon a motion filed by the prosecutor in a criminal case, the judge who is 4 hearing the criminal case in a participating county may request that an offender be placed in the 5 department of corrections for one hundred twenty days for a mental health assessment and for 6 treatment if it appears that the offender has a mental disorder or mental illness such that the offender may qualify for probation including community psychiatric rehabilitation (CPR) 7 programs and such probation is appropriate and not inconsistent with public safety. Before the 8 judge rules upon the motion, the victim shall be given notice of such motion and the opportunity 9 to be heard. Upon recommendation of the court, the department shall determine the offender's 10 eligibility for the mental health assessment process. 11

3. Following this assessment and treatment period, an assessment report shall be sent to the sentencing court and the sentencing court may, if appropriate, release the offender on probation. The offender shall be supervised on probation by a state probation and parole officer, who shall work cooperatively with the department of mental health to enroll eligible offenders in community psychiatric rehabilitation (CPR) programs.
