

HB 2611 -- ANIMAL CARE FACILITIES ACT

SPONSOR: Barnes

Currently, the crime of canine cruelty is a class C misdemeanor unless the person has previously plead to or been found guilty of canine cruelty, then the crime is a class A misdemeanor. This bill specifies that if a person commits three or more separate violations at the same time, it is also a class A misdemeanor.