

HB 2677 -- FERAL HOGS DAMAGE

SPONSOR: Cupps

This bill specifies that the Department of Conservation is financially liable for any damage caused by feral hogs including crop and pasture damages, indemnification of losses suffered by livestock producers resulting from harassment or disease, the value of fencing and other private property damages resulting from feral hogs.