

HB 2760 -- PERSONAL INFORMATION

SPONSOR: Pogue

This bill prevents the state and any state agency or political subdivision of the state from disclosing, sharing, or selling the personal information of any person without the person's expressed consent. A violation of this section is a class C misdemeanor. Any state agency or political subdivision that violates this section is liable to the person whose personal information was disclosed in the amount of $500 for each separate violation.