

HCR 90 -- BLACK HISTORY

SPONSOR: Pierson Jr.

This concurrent resolution addresses the history of persons of African origin who were enslaved and how the legacy of slavery has pervaded the fabric of society, and states that the triumphs of African-Americans and their significant contributions to the development of this country is the proper concern of all people. The concurrent resolution encourages public schools in Missouri to celebrate Black History Month and infuse Black history perspectives into lesson plans throughout the year. The resolution urges teachers to improve Black history education, build networks, and utilize resources relating to Black history education.
