

HJR 119 -- RELIGIOUS BELIEFS, PRACTICES, AND TENETS

SPONSOR: Ross

Upon voter approval, this Constitutional amendment names God as the "Author of Life" and states that no woman shall be coerced or compelled to have an abortion, and that no person or entity shall be forced or compelled to directly or indirectly fund or participate in an abortion. It further allows the General Assembly to enact laws and make appropriations in ways that protect the moral, ethical, and religious beliefs, practices, and tenets of persons and entities.