Offered By _____

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute No. 2 for Senate Bill No. 26, Page 2,
2 Section 84.400, Line 14, by inserting after said section and line the following:

4 "217.690. 1. All releases or paroles shall issue upon order of the board, duly adopted.

5 2. Before ordering the parole of any offender, the board shall conduct a validated risk and
6 needs assessment and evaluate the case under the rules governing parole that are promulgated by the
7 board. The board shall then have the offender appear before a hearing panel and shall conduct a
8 personal interview with him, unless waived by the offender, or if the guidelines indicate the offender
9 may be paroled without need for an interview. The guidelines and rules shall not allow for the 10 waiver of a hearing if a victim requests a hearing. The appearance or presence may occur by means
11 of a videoconference at the discretion of the board. A parole may be ordered for the best interest of 12 society when there is a reasonable probability, based on the risk assessment and indicators of release
13 readiness, that the person can be supervised under parole supervision and successfully reintegrated
14 into the community, not as an award of clemency; it shall not be considered a reduction of sentence
15 or a pardon. Every offender while on parole shall remain in the legal custody of the department but 16 shall be subject to the orders of the board.

17 3. The division of probation and parole has discretionary authority to require the payment of 18 a fee, not to exceed sixty dollars per month, from every offender placed under division supervision
19 on probation, parole, or conditional release, to waive all or part of any fee, to sanction offenders for 20 willful nonpayment of fees, and to contract with a private entity for fee collections services. All
21 fees collected shall be deposited in the inmate fund established in section 217.430. Fees collected
22 may be used to pay the costs of contracted collections services. The fees collected may otherwise
23 be used to provide community corrections and intervention services for offenders. Such services
24 include substance abuse assessment and treatment, mental health assessment and treatment,
25 electronic monitoring services, residential facilities services, employment placement services, and 26 other offender community corrections or intervention services designated by the division of 27 probation and parole to assist offenders to successfully complete probation, parole, or conditional
28 release. The board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040,
29 with respect to sanctioning offenders and with respect to establishing, waiving, collecting, and using 30 fees.

31 4. The board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040,
32 with respect to the eligibility of offenders for parole, the conduct of parole hearings or conditions to 33 be imposed upon paroled offenders. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall recite the 34 conditions of such parole.

35 5. When considering parole for an offender with consecutive sentences, the minimum term
36 for eligibility for parole shall be calculated by adding the minimum terms for parole eligibility for each of the consecutive sentences, except the minimum term for parole eligibility shall not exceed the minimum term for parole eligibility for an ordinary life sentence.

6. Any offender sentenced to a term of imprisonment amounting to fifteen years or more or multiple terms of imprisonment that, taken together, amount to fifteen or more years who was under eighteen years of age at the time of the commission of the offense or offenses may be eligible for parole after serving fifteen years of incarceration, regardless of whether the case is final for the purposes of appeal, and may be eligible for reconsideration hearings in accordance with regulations promulgated by the parole board.

7. The provisions of subsection 6 shall not apply to an offender found guilty of murder in the first degree or capital murder who was under eighteen years of age when the offender committed the offense or offenses who may be found ineligible for parole or whose parole eligibility may be controlled by section 558.047 or 565.033.

8. Any offender under a sentence for first degree murder who has been denied release on parole after a parole hearing shall not be eligible for another parole hearing until at least three years from the month of the parole denial; however, this subsection shall not prevent a release pursuant to subsection 4 of section 558.011.

~~[7.]~~ 9. A victim who has requested an opportunity to be heard shall receive notice that the parole board is conducting an assessment of the offender's risk and readiness for release and that the victim's input will be particularly helpful when it pertains to safety concerns and specific protective measures that may be beneficial to the victim should the offender be granted release.

~~[8.]~~ 10. Parole hearings shall, at a minimum, contain the following procedures:

(1) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing may be accompanied by one other person;

(2) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing shall have the option of giving testimony in the presence of the inmate or to the hearing panel without the inmate being present;

(3) The victim or person representing the victim may call or write the parole board rather than attend the hearing;

(4) The victim or person representing the victim may have a personal meeting with a parole board member at the parole board's central office;

(5) The judge, prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney and a representative of the local law enforcement agency investigating the crime shall be allowed to attend the hearing or provide information to the hearing panel in regard to the parole consideration; and

(6) The parole board shall evaluate information listed in the juvenile sex offender registry pursuant to section 211.425, provided the offender is between the ages of seventeen and twenty-one, as it impacts the safety of the community.

~~[9.]~~ 11. The parole board shall notify any person of the results of a parole eligibility hearing if the person indicates to the parole board a desire to be notified.

~~[10.]~~ 12. The parole board may, at its discretion, require any offender seeking parole to meet certain conditions during the term of that parole so long as said conditions are not illegal or impossible for the offender to perform. These conditions may include an amount of restitution to the state for the cost of that offender's incarceration.

~~[11.]~~ 13. Special parole conditions shall be responsive to the assessed risk and needs of the offender or the need for extraordinary supervision, such as electronic monitoring. The parole board shall adopt rules to minimize the conditions placed on low-risk cases, to frontload conditions upon release, and to require the modification and reduction of conditions based on the person's continuing stability in the community. Parole board rules shall permit parole conditions to be modified by parole officers with review and approval by supervisors.

~~[12.]~~ 14. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the release of an offender on parole nor to reduce the sentence of an offender heretofore committed.

[13.] 15. Beginning January 1, 2001, the parole board shall not order a parole unless the offender has obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent, or unless the parole board is satisfied that the offender, while committed to the custody of the department, has made an honest good-faith effort to obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent; provided that the director may waive this requirement by certifying in writing to the parole board that the offender has actively participated in mandatory education programs or is academically unable to obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent.

[14.] 16. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2005, shall be invalid and void.

217.692. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, any offender incarcerated in a correctional institution serving any sentence of life with no parole for fifty years or life without parole, whose plea of guilt was entered or whose trial commenced prior to December 31, 1990, and who:

- (1) Pleaded guilty to or was found guilty of a homicide of a spouse or domestic partner;
- (2) Has no prior violent felony convictions;
- (3) No longer has a cognizable legal claim or legal recourse; and
- (4) Has a history of being a victim of continual and substantial physical or sexual domestic violence that was not presented as an affirmative defense at trial or sentencing and such history can be corroborated with evidence of facts or circumstances which existed at the time of the alleged physical or sexual domestic violence of the offender, including but not limited to witness statements, hospital records, social services records, and law enforcement records;

shall be eligible for parole after having served fifteen years of such sentence when the board determines by using the guidelines established by this section that there is a strong and reasonable probability that the person will not thereafter violate the law.

2. The board of probation and parole shall give a thorough review of the case history and prison record of any offender described in subsection 1 of this section. At the end of the board's review, the board shall provide the offender with a copy of a statement of reasons for its parole decision.

3. Any offender released under the provisions of this section shall be under the supervision of the parole board for an amount of time to be determined by the board.

4. The parole board shall consider, but not be limited to the following criteria when making its parole decision:

- (1) Length of time served;
- (2) Prison record and self-rehabilitation efforts;
- (3) Whether the history of the case included corroborative material of physical, sexual, mental, or emotional abuse of the offender, including but not limited to witness statements, hospital records, social service records, and law enforcement records;
- (4) If an offer of a plea bargain was made and if so, why the offender rejected or accepted the offer;
- (5) Any victim information outlined in subsection [8] 10. of section 217.690 and section 595.209;
- (6) The offender's continued claim of innocence;

1           (7) The age and maturity of the offender at the time of the board's decision;
2           (8) The age and maturity of the offender at the time of the crime and any contributing
3 influence affecting the offender's judgment;
4           (9) The presence of a workable parole plan; and
5           (10) Community and family support.
6           5. Nothing in this section shall limit the review of any offender's case who is eligible for
7 parole prior to fifteen years, nor shall it limit in any way the parole board's power to grant parole
8 prior to fifteen years.
9           6. Nothing in this section shall limit the review of any offender's case who has applied for 10 executive clemency, nor shall it limit in any way the governor's power to grant clemency.
11           7. It shall be the responsibility of the offender to petition the board for a hearing under this 12 section.
13           8. A person commits the crime of perjury if he or she, with the purpose to deceive,
14 knowingly makes a false witness statement to the board. Perjury under this section shall be a class
15 D felony.
16           9. In cases where witness statements alleging physical or sexual domestic violence are in
17 conflict as to whether such violence occurred or was continual and substantial in nature, the history
18 of such alleged violence shall be established by other corroborative evidence in addition to witness
19 statements, as provided by subsection 1 of this section. A contradictory statement of the victim
20 shall not be deemed a conflicting statement for purposes of this section."; and 21
22 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
23 accordingly.
