FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

$488,426 - Fee collection for law library in St. Louis City

Officials at the Office of the State Courts Administrator (OSCA) assume the proposed legislation allows the circuit court in St. Louis City to collect a fee not to exceed twenty dollars, rather than fifteen, to go toward the law library. During the past five years there was an average of 7,585 circuit civil case filings, 7,346 domestic relations civil case filings and 18,314 associate civil and small claims civil case filings, for a total of 33,245. Based upon the increase in the collection fee not to exceed $20, rather than $15, to go toward the library, OSCA estimates the increase to be $0 to $166,225 ($$5 * 33,245$).

Oversight notes OSCA's numbers above are for FY12 thru FY16 according to the Missouri Judicial Report Supplement. Using the same information in the supplement, Oversight gathered information for the past eight years (FY12 thru FY19) and the average was as follows:

Circuit Civil	10,112
Domestic Relations	7,125
Associate Civil and Small Claims	17,890
Civil Circuit Total	35,128

Oversight estimates the increase to be $0 to $175,640 ($$5 * 35,128$).

Officials from the City of St. Louis assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization. The Law Librarian states that some additional programming, database enhancements, increase in print volumes, and potential benefits to pro se litigants may be gained with additional fees but those are undefined at this time. The Law Library is its own entity separate from the Circuit Court. The Court is not in a position to quantify those costs as they pertain to the Circuit's operations. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for this agency.

FISCAL IMPACT – Small Business

No direct fiscal impact to small businesses would be expected as a result of this proposal.

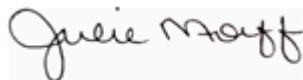

FISCAL DESCRIPTION

Currently, the circuit court in any circuit may collect a fee in civil cases not to exceed $15, and that fee shall go toward maintenance and upkeep of the law library in the designated county. Jackson County and any circuit that reimburses the state for salaries of family court commissioners are allowed to charge a fee not to exceed $20. The bill adds the Circuit Court in the city of St. Louis to the circuits that may charge a fee not to exceed $20.

This legislation is not federally mandated, would not duplicate any other program and would not require additional capital improvements or rental space.
