27 section shall not exceed the amount of the taxpayer's state tax liability for the taxable year that 28 the credit is claimed, and such taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim a tax credit in excess of 29 fifty thousand dollars per taxable year. However, any tax credit that cannot be claimed in the 32 4. Except for any excess credit which is carried over pursuant to subsection 3 of this

58 department of social services, of its apportioned tax credits during this predetermined period of 59 time, the director of the department of social services may reapportion these unused tax credits

61 determined by the director of the department of social services, of their apportioned tax credits
62 during this predetermined period of time. The director of the department of social services may 63 establish more than one period of time and reapportion more than once during each fiscal year.
64 To the maximum extent possible, the director of the department of social services shall establish 65 the procedure described in this subsection in such a manner as to ensure that taxpayers can claim

79 defined under section 455.010, in the tax year for which the credit is sought.

80 11. The department of social services and the department of revenue may jointly 81 promulgate all necessary rules and regulations for the administration of subsections 9 and 82 10 of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, 83 that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if 84 it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable,
85 section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of the powers
86 vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective
