

FIRST REGULAR SESSION

HOUSE BILL NO. 1197

101ST GENERAL ASSEMBLY

INTRODUCED BY REPRESENTATIVE BLAND MANLOVE.

2180H.011

DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

AN ACT

To amend chapter 630, RSMo, by adding thereto one new section relating to a homicide prevention hotline.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 630, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto one new section, to be known as section 630.1030, to read as follows:

630.1030. 1. The department of mental health shall establish and maintain a homicide prevention hotline for the purpose of assisting individuals who are experiencing homicidal thoughts.

2. The homicide prevention hotline shall be staffed twenty-four hours per day, seven days per week and shall have statewide accessibility through a toll-free telephone number.

3. Employees of the department of mental health who are trained in conflict resolution shall staff the homicide prevention hotline. The department of mental health may require any other qualifications for staff it deems necessary.

4. The department of mental health shall establish a specialized mobile response team to respond to callers who require its specialized services at the location of the crisis or another secure community location. The specialized mobile response team shall include only individuals who have received in-depth training on face-to-face crisis intervention, conflict resolution, and homicide prevention. The department of mental health may require any other qualifications for specialized mobile response team members it deems necessary.

EXPLANATION — Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted from the law. Matter in bold-face type in the above bill is proposed language.

17 5. Hotline staff members and specialized mobile response team members shall 18 receive annual training on homicide prevention strategies and techniques, legal issues
19 associated with homicide prevention, safety issues, and available resources and services for 20 individuals experiencing homicidal thoughts. The department of mental health may 21 provide this training or may identify entities that offer such training.

22 6. The department of mental health shall develop written protocols for responding
23 to hotline callers. Hotline staff may refer callers to appropriate community resources or
24 take other necessary action, such as deploying the specialized mobile response team
25 established under subsection 4 of this section or coordinating a mobile response with an
26 access crisis intervention program or other existing program for crisis intervention
27 established by the department of mental health.

28 7. The department of mental health shall post the homicide prevention hotline
29 number on its website and include information about the hotline number in its educational 30 materials and outreach activities.

31 8. The department of mental health may fulfill the requirements of this section by 32 incorporating homicide prevention services into any of its existing crisis intervention
33 programs, such as the access crisis intervention program, as long as:

34 (1) The program has established a hotline number or numbers that operate twenty-
35 four hours per day, seven days per week;

36 (2) Individuals experiencing homicidal thoughts may call a hotline number and 37 receive substantially similar services to the services described in this section;

38 (3) Program staff members receive substantially similar training to the training
39 described in this section; and

40 (4) The department of mental health emphasizes the homicide prevention services
41 offered by the program on its website and in educational materials and outreach activities.

42 9. The department of mental health shall promulgate rules to implement the 43 provisions of this section. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section
44 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective
45 only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if 46 applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable, and if any of 47 the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay
48 the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held
49 unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted
50 after August 28, 2021, shall be invalid and void.
