

HB 156 -- ELECTRONIC MONITORING EQUIPMENT

SPONSOR: Veit

A person commits the offense of tampering with electronic monitoring equipment if he or she fails to charge or otherwise disables the electronic monitoring equipment.

The bill specifies that the offense of tampering with electronic monitoring equipment when a person fails to charge or otherwise disables the equipment is a class E felony.

This bill is the same as HCS HB 1332 (2020).