

HB 354 -- EMPLOYER PROBATIONARY PERIOD

SPONSOR: Baker

Currently charges may not be made against the unemployment benefits account of an employer with respect to benefits paid to any individual unless that individual was employed for longer than a probationary period of 28 days. This bill extends that probationary period to 90 days.

This bill is similar to SB 694 (2020).