

HB 573 -- LANDOWNER LIABILITY

SPONSOR: Haden

Currently, a landowner who invites or permits a person to enter his land for recreational use in compliance with a state-administered recreational access program does not assume certain liabilities or responsibilities. This bill extends the limited liability to landowners who invite or permit a person to enter his land for recreational use in compliance with a state-administered wildlife management program.