

HB 676 -- MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE

SPONSOR: Coleman (97)

This bill specifies that in a first degree murder case, the jury must consider certain aggravating circumstances. One of those aggravating circumstances is that the offense was committed while the offender was engaged in the commission or attempted commission of another unlawful homicide, regardless of whether the victim was previously identified.