

HB 1119 -- EMPLOYEE LIABILITY

SPONSOR: Trent

This bill states that an employee is not to be released from liability if the employee engaged in a willful act with the intent to cause bodily injury or death.

Currently, employees are immune for damages involving bodily injury or death unless they commit an affirmative negligent act that causes or increases the risk of injury.

This bill is similar to HB 2607 (2020).