

HB 1176 -- INVESTIGATIONAL DRUGS

SPONSOR: Davis

Currently, an individual with a terminal illness can be treated with investigational drugs. This bill adds patients that have a debilitating or life-threatening illnesses to the list of patients that can be treated with investigational drugs.

The bill also adds certain substances to the list of offense of possession of a controlled substance.