As a property owner in Missouri and having experienced my property being "squatted" upon by unauthorized persons who refused to leave and who "took up residence", I am in support of HB36. In instances that I have experienced trespassing on my rental property during periods of vacancy/for rent, police are apprehensive to get involved, leaving me with little help other than a lengthy court process. This bill protects law enforcement officers from being held liable for their actions or omissions made in good faith under subdivision (2) of subsection 1, which I believe will give the officers more confidence in their role.
