I became aware of the Missouri Non-Partisan Court Plan back in the 1990s. I had assumed that we were on the Federal Model where the President appoints and the Senate confirms. I was disturbed to learn that the Missouri Supreme Court, the appellate courts, and circuit courts in Jackson County, Clay County, St. Louis County, Platte County, Greene County, and city of St Louis were actually chosen by a panel which would make the final decision should the governor not want to appoint any of the three the commission gives the governor from which to choose. As I am asked by many individuals about the judges at election time. I hate to break the bad news to them that it doesn't really matter that much on the judges in the Missouri Court Plan authority because there has only been three times since 1945 where a judge was not retained -the people don't have much of a voice when it comes to judges for the Missouri Supreme Court, Appellate Courts and circuit judges in the city of St. Louis, Jackson County, Clay County, Platte County, St. Louis County, and Greene County. I want to get back to where the governor appoints the person of his/her choice and the senate confirms. The people have a voice in the election of the governor who makes the appointment. Plus we have input into the senate via petitioning and elections. That is if the senator is not on the second term. Due to term limits the people basically don't have a voice with the senators in their second term. But term limits are another issue... HJR40 isn't going to take us back to the ideal but it's a step in the right direction. I became aware of the Missouri Non-Partisan Court Plan back in the 1990s. We need to change how judges are chosen. The people elect the governor of the state for a reason and he or she needs the authority to choose judges and have the senate confirm them. Not a small group of people.

Missouri's current Nonpartisan Court Plan shuts out the Citizen Voter. The voter has NO input in the selection process. The nominating game is totally rigged to exclude conservative candidates. ALL candidates presented to the Governor are leftists. To say the voter can vote to "Not Retain" a judge is total fraud. The "Retention Vote" is also rigged to retain every candidate. Here is proof. Q. how many are voted to not retain? Ans. NONE. Every sitting Judge is presented as a "Saint" and must be retained.
