The Missouri Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence (MCADSV) unites Missourians with a shared value that rape and abuse must end, and advances this through education, alliance, research and public policy. MCADSV is a statewide membership association comprised of approximately 120 domestic violence and sexual assault agencies. MCADSV supports SB 53 and 60 which creates the offense of sexual conduct in the course of public duty. No one employed in a position of power over a detainee, prisoner, or offender should engage in sexual conduct with such vulnerable individuals while on duty. This should be considered a crime. In 2019, 9,057 individuals received services from a Missouri sexual assault program. This number does not include the 5,496 individuals who requested services yet were unmet because the program lacked the resources to meet the need. This number does not reflect the number of individuals who never request services as sexual assault is often an unreported crime, especially among the vulnerable. According to MCADSV's SV 101: Understanding and Responding to Sexual Violence: Sexual violence is purposeful, violent behavior. Perpetrators of sexual violence target their victims, choosing individuals they perceive to be vulnerable and/or least likely to report. The perpetrator uses a victim's vulnerabilities to their advantage. While only a small minority of people perpetrate sexual violence, the violent acts committed by these perpetrators have an enormous impact on a large number of survivors. An act of sexual violence occurs when a victim does not consent to some type of sexual activity and it happens anyway. A perpetrator might use force or coercion to achieve control. Force is physical violence, compulsion or constraint exerted upon or against a person, or a threat that places a person in fear of death or injury of themselves or another. Coercion is the use of power to impose one's will on another. Other terms indicating coercion include pressure, duress, cajoling and compulsion. Coercion is achieved by using authority, threats, fear or manipulation. Sexual violence occurs in prison with alarming regularity. The Bureau of Justice Statistics estimates that incarcerated individuals experience sexual assault at a rate nearly 30 times higher than the general population. Inmates who are young, LGBTQ or struggle with mental health are especially vulnerable and experience even higher rates of sexual violence. These are not always isolated incidents; 31 percent of inmates victimized by sexual violence report being assaulted three or more times during their incarceration. Although MCADSV staff are not there in-person, please do not hesitate to contact us if you have questions.

I am in Opposition to this Bill in its Present Form. Please Amend the Bill by taking out the $50-Fee to the Sheriff's Office for Evictions, which makes the issue even worse and the City of Kansas City Police Department Residency Issue. This takes away Local Control and is eroding the Kansas City Home-Rule City Charter. The other measures I Support.
