AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill No. 690, Pages 25-26, Section 194.297, Lines 1-32, by deleting all of said section and lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "194.297. 1. There is established in the state treasury the "Organ Donor Program Fund" [which shall consist of all moneys deposited by the director of revenue pursuant to subsection 2 of section 302.171 and any other moneys donated or appropriated to the fund]. The director of revenue shall credit to and deposit in the organ donor program fund all amounts received under sections 301.020, 301.3125, and subsection 2 of section 302.171, and any other amounts which may be received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to suppor programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the Section 194.297, Lines 1-32, by deleting all of said section and lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "194.297. 1. There is established in the state treasury the "Organ Donor Program Fund" which shall consist of all moneys deposited by the director of revenue pursuant to subsection 2 of section 302.171 and any other moneys donated or appropriated to the fund. The director of revenue shall credit to and deposit in the organ donor program fund all amounts received under sections 301.020, 301.3125, and subsection 2 of section 302.171, and any other amounts which may be received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the which shall consist of all moneys deposited by the director of revenue pursuant to subsection 2 of section 302.171 and any other moneys donated or appropriated to the fund]. The director of revenue shall credit to and deposit in the organ donor program fund all amounts received under sections 301.020, 301.3125, and subsection 2 of section 302.171, and any other amounts which may be received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the section 302.171 and any other moneys donated or appropriated to the fund]. The director of revenue shall credit to and deposit in the organ donor program fund all amounts received under section 301.020, 301.3125, and subsection 2 of section 302.171, and any other amounts which may be received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the shall credit to and deposit in the organ donor program fund all amounts received under sections 301.020, 301.3125, and subsection 2 of section 302.171, and any other amounts which may be received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the 301.020, 301.3125, and subsection 2 of section 302.171, and any other amounts which may be received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the received from grants, gifts, bequests, the federal government, or other sources granted or given Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the Funds shall be used for implementing efforts that support or provide organ, eye, and tissue donation education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the education awareness, recognition, training, and registry efforts unless designated for a specific purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the purpose as outlined in subsection 4 of this section. Funds may be used to support expenses incurred by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the by organ donation advisory committee members pursuant to section 194.300. 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the 2. The department of health and senior services may pursue funding to support programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the programmatic efforts and initiatives as outlined in subsection 1 of this section. 3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the
3. The state treasurer shall invest any funds in excess of five hundred thousand dollars in the organ donor program fund not required for immediate disbursement or program allocation in the same manner as surplus state funds are invested under section 30.260. All earnings resulting from the investment of money in the organ donor program fund shall be credited to the organ donor program fund.
4. The organ donor program fund can accept gifts, grants, appropriations, or contribution from any source, public or private, including contributions from sections 301.020, 301.3125, and 302.171, and individuals, private organizations and foundations, and bequests. Private contributions are an analysis of the second of the seco contributions, grants, and federal funds may be used and expended by the department for such purposes as may be specified in any requirements, terms, or conditions attached thereto or, in the absence of any specific requirements, terms, or conditions, as the department may determine for purposes outlined in subsection 1 of this section.
5. The acceptance and use of federal funds shall not commit any state funds, nor place an obligation upon the general assembly to continue the programs or activities outlined in the federal

Action Taken______Date _____

fund award for which the federal funds ar

- 6. The state treasurer shall administer the fund, and the moneys in the fund shall be used solely, upon appropriation, by the department [of health and senior services, in consultation]. The department may consult with the organ donation advisory committee[, for implementation of organ donation awareness programs in the manner prescribed in subsection 2 of section 194.300] about the implementation of programming and related expenditures.
- 7. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 33.080 to the contrary, moneys in the organ donor program fund at the end of any biennium shall not be transferred to the credit of the general revenue fund. There shall be no money appropriated from general revenue to administer the fund in the event the fund cannot sustain itself."; and Further amend said bill, Page 26, Section 194.299, Lines 1-19, by deleting all of said section and line and inserting in lieu thereof the following:

- "194.299. The moneys in the organ donor program fund shall be expended as follows:
- (1) [Grants by] The department of health and senior services [to] may enter into contracts with certified organ procurement organizations, other organizations, individuals, and institutions for services furthering the development and implementation of organ donation awareness programs in this state;
- (2) Education and awareness initiatives, donor family recognition efforts, training, strategic planning efforts, and registry initiatives;
- (3) Publication of informational pamphlets or booklets by the department of health and senior services and the advisory committee regarding organ donations and donations to the organ donor program fund when obtaining or renewing a license to operate a motor vehicle pursuant to subsection 2 of section 302.171;
- [(3)] (4) Maintenance of a central registry of potential organ, eye, and tissue donors pursuant to subsection 1 of section 194.304; [and
- (4)] (5) Implementation of organ donation awareness programs in the secondary schools of this state by the department of elementary and secondary education; and
- (6) Reimbursements for reasonable and necessary expenses incurred by advisory committee members pursuant to subsection 2 of section 194.300."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.