"applied, so long as the other terms and conditions of probation have been successfully completed.

452.1100. Sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 may be cited as the "Uniform Child Abduction Prevention Act".

452.1102. In sections 452.1100 to 452.1122:

(1) "Abduction" means the wrongful removal or wrongful retention of a child;

(2) "Child" means an unemancipated individual who is less than eighteen years of age;

(3) "Child-custody determination" means a judgment, decree, or other order of a court providing for the legal custody, physical custody, or visitation with respect to a child. The term includes a permanent, temporary, initial, and modification order;

(4) "Child custody proceeding" means a proceeding in which legal custody, physical custody, or visitation with respect to a child is at issue. The term includes a proceeding for divorce, dissolution of marriage, separation, neglect, abuse, dependency, guardianship, paternity, termination of parental rights, or protection from domestic violence;

(5) "Court" means an entity authorized under the law of a state to establish, enforce, or modify a child-custody determination;

(6) "Petition" includes a motion or its equivalent;

(7) "Record" means information that is inscribed on a tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in perceivable form;

(8) "State" means a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United States Virgin Islands, or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the United States. The term includes a federally recognized Indian tribe or nation;

(9) "Travel document" means records relating to a travel itinerary, including travel tickets, passes, reservations for transportation, or accommodations. The term does not include a passport or visa;

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 (10) "Wrongful removal" means the taking of a child that breaches rights of custody or 2 visitation given or recognized under the law of this state;

3 (11) "Wrongful retention" means the keeping or concealing of a child that breaches rights of 4 custody or visitation given or recognized under the law of this state.

5 452.1104. Sections 452.730, 452.735, and 452.820 of the uniform child custody jurisdiction
6 and enforcement act apply to cooperation and communications among courts in proceedings under
7 sections 452.1100 to 452.1122.

8 452.1106. 1. A court on its own motion may order abduction prevention measures in a child
9 custody proceeding if the court finds that the evidence establishes a credible risk of abduction of the 10 child.

11 2. A party to a child custody determination or another individual or entity having a right
12 under the law of this state or any other state to seek a child custody determination for the child may 13 file a petition seeking abduction prevention measures to protect the child under sections 452.1100 to 14 452.1122.

15 3. A prosecutor or public authority designated under section 452.910 may seek a warrant to 16 take physical custody of a child under section 452.1116 or other appropriate prevention measures.

17 452.1108. 1. A petition under sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 may be filed only in a court
18 that has jurisdiction to make a child custody determination with respect to the child at issue under 19 sections 452.700 to 452.930.

20 2. A court of this state has temporary emergency jurisdiction under section 452.755 if the 21 court finds a credible risk of abduction.

22 452.1110. A petition under sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 must be verified and include a
23 copy of any existing child custody determination, if available. The petition must specify the risk
24 factors for abduction, including the relevant factors described in section 452.1112. Subject to 25 subsection 5 of section 452.780, if reasonably ascertainable, the petition must contain:

26 (1) The name, date of birth, and gender of the child;

27 (2) The customary address and current physical location of the child;

28 (3) The identity, customary address, and current physical location of the respondent;

29 (4) A statement of whether a prior action to prevent abduction or domestic violence has 30 been filed by a party or other individual or entity having custody of the child, and the date, location,
31 and disposition of the action;

32 (5) A statement of whether a party to the proceeding has been arrested for a crime related to 33 domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect, and the date, location, and disposition of the 34 case; and

35 (6) Any other information required to be submitted to the court for a child custody
36 determination under section 452.780.

37 452.1112. 1. In determining whether there is a credible risk of abduction of a child, the 38 court shall consider any evidence that the petitioner or respondent:

39 (1) Has previously abducted or attempted to abduct the child;

- 1 (2) Has threatened to abduct the child;
2 (3) Has recently engaged in activities that may indicate a planned abduction, including:
3 (a) Abandoning employment;
4 (b) Selling a primary residence;
5 (c) Terminating a lease;
6 (d) Closing bank or other financial management accounts, liquidating assets, hiding or 7 destroying financial documents, or conducting any unusual financial activities;
8 (e) Applying for a passport or visa or obtaining travel documents for the respondent, a 9 family member, or the child; or
10 (f) Seeking to obtain the child's birth certificate or school or medical records;
11 (4) Has engaged in domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect;
12 (5) Has refused to follow a child custody determination;
13 (6) Lacks strong familial, financial, emotional, or cultural ties to the state or the United 14 States;
15 (7) Has strong familial, financial, emotional, or cultural ties to another state or country;
16 (8) Is likely to take the child to a country that:
17 (a) Is not a party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child
18 Abduction and does not provide for the extradition of an abducting parent or for the return of an 19 abducted child;
20 (b) Is a party to the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child
21 Abduction but:
22 a. The Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction is not in 23 force between the United States and that country;
24 b. Is noncompliant according to the most recent compliance report issued by the United 25 States Department of State; or 26 c. Lacks legal mechanisms for immediately and effectively enforcing a return order under 27 the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction;
28 (c) Poses a risk that the child's physical or emotional health or safety would be endangered
29 in the country because of specific circumstances relating to the child or because of human rights
30 violations committed against children;
31 (d) Has laws or practices that would:
32 a. Enable the respondent, without due cause, to prevent the petitioner from contacting the 33 child;
34 b. Restrict the petitioner from freely traveling to or exiting from the country because of the 35 petitioner's gender, nationality, marital status, or religion; or 36 c. Restrict the child's ability legally to leave the country after the child reaches the age of 37 majority because of a child's gender, nationality, or religion;
38 (e) Is included by the United States Department of State on a current list of state sponsors of 39 terrorism;

- 1 (f) Does not have an official United States diplomatic presence in the country; or
- 2 (g) Is engaged in active military action or war, including a civil war, to which the child may
- 3 be exposed;
- 4 (9) Is undergoing a change in immigration or citizenship status that would adversely affect
- 5 the respondent's ability to remain in the United States legally;
- 6 (10) Has had an application for United States citizenship denied;
- 7 (11) Has forged or presented misleading or false evidence on government forms or
- 8 supporting documents to obtain or attempt to obtain a passport, a visa, travel documents, a Social
- 9 Security card, a driver's license, or other government-issued identification card or has made a
- 10 misrepresentation to the United States government;
- 11 (12) Has used multiple names to attempt to mislead or defraud; or
- 12 (13) Has engaged in any other conduct the court considers relevant to the risk of abduction.
- 13 2. In the hearing on a petition under sections 452.1100 to 452.1122, the court shall consider
- 14 any evidence that the respondent believed in good faith that the respondent's conduct was necessary
- 15 to avoid imminent harm to the child or respondent and any other evidence that may be relevant to
- 16 whether the respondent may be permitted to remove or retain the child.
- 17 452.1114. 1. If a petition is filed under sections 452.1100 to 452.1122, the court may enter
- 18 an order that must include:
- 19 (1) The basis for the court's exercise of jurisdiction;
- 20 (2) The manner in which notice and opportunity to be heard were given to the persons
- 21 entitled to notice of the proceeding;
- 22 (3) A detailed description of each party's custody and visitation rights and residential
- 23 arrangements for the child;
- 24 (4) A provision stating that a violation of the order may subject the party in violation to civil
- 25 and criminal penalties; and
- 26 (5) Identification of the child's country of habitual residence at the time of the issuance of
- 27 the order.
- 28 2. If, at a hearing on a petition under sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 or on the court's own
- 29 motion, the court after reviewing the evidence finds a credible risk of abduction of the child, the
- 30 court shall enter an abduction prevention order. The order must include the provisions required by
- 31 subsection 1 of this section and measures and conditions, including those in subsections 3, 4, and 5
- 32 of this section, that are reasonably calculated to prevent abduction of the child, giving due
- 33 consideration to the potential harm to the child from an abduction, the legal and practical difficulties
- 34 of returning the child to the jurisdiction if abducted, and the reasons for the potential abduction,
- 35 including evidence of domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect.
- 36 3. An abduction prevention order may include one or more of the following:
- 37 (1) An imposition of travel restrictions that require that a party traveling with the child
- 38 outside a designated geographical area provide the other party with the following:
- 39 (a) The travel itinerary of the child;

- 1 (b) A list of physical addresses and telephone numbers at which the child can be reached at 2 specified times; and
- 3 (c) Copies of all travel documents;
- 4 (2) A prohibition of the respondent directly or indirectly:
- 5 (a) Removing the child from this state, the United States, or another geographic area without 6 permission of the court or the petitioner's written consent;
- 7 (b) Removing or retaining the child in violation of a child custody determination;
- 8 (c) Removing the child from school or a child care or similar facility; or
- 9 (d) Approaching the child at any location other than a site designated for supervised 10 visitation;
- 11 (3) A requirement that a party register the order in another state as a prerequisite to allowing 12 the child to travel to that state;
- 13 (4) With regard to the child's passport:
- 14 (a) A direction that the petitioner place the child's name in the United States Department of 15 State's Child Passport Issuance Alert Program;
- 16 (b) A requirement that the respondent surrender to the court or the petitioner's attorney any 17 United States or foreign passport issued in the child's name, including a passport issued in the name 18 of both the parent and the child; and
- 19 (c) A prohibition upon the respondent from applying on behalf of the child for a new or 20 replacement passport or visa;
- 21 (5) As a prerequisite to exercising custody or visitation, a requirement that the respondent 22 provide:
- 23 (a) To the United States Department of State Office of Children's Issues and the relevant 24 foreign consulate or embassy, an authenticated copy of the order detailing passport and travel 25 restrictions for the child;
- 26 (b) To the court:
- 27 a. Proof that the respondent has provided the information in paragraph (a) of this 28 subdivision; and
- 29 b. An acknowledgment in a record from the relevant foreign consulate or embassy that no 30 passport application has been made, or passport issued, on behalf of the child;
- 31 (c) To the petitioner, proof of registration with the United States Embassy or other United 32 States diplomatic presence in the destination country and with the Central Authority for the Hague
33 Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction, if that Convention is in effect
34 between the United States and the destination country, unless one of the parties objects; and
- 35 (d) A written waiver under 5 U.S.C. Section 552a of the Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, 36 with respect to any document, application, or other information pertaining to the child authorizing 37 its disclosure to the court and the petitioner; and
- 38 (6) Upon the petitioner's request, a requirement that the respondent obtain an order from the 39 relevant foreign country containing terms identical to the child custody determination issued in the 1 United States.

2 4. In an abduction prevention order, the court may impose conditions on the exercise of 3 custody or visitation that:

4 (1) Limit visitation or require that visitation with the child by the respondent be supervised
5 until the court finds that supervision is no longer necessary and order the respondent to pay the costs
6 of supervision;

7 (2) Require the respondent to post a bond or provide other security in an amount sufficient
8 to serve as a financial deterrent to abduction, the proceeds of which may be used to pay for the 9 reasonable expenses of recovery of the child, including reasonable attorneys' fees and costs if there 10 is an abduction; and

11 (3) Require the respondent to obtain education on the potentially harmful effects to the child
12 from abduction.

13 5. To prevent imminent abduction of a child, a court may:

14 (1) Issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child under section 452.1116 or the law of 15 this state other than sections 452.1100 to 452.1122;

16 (2) Direct the use of law enforcement to take any action reasonably necessary to locate the 17 child, obtain return of the child, or enforce a custody determination under sections 452.1100 to 18 452.1122 or the law of this state other than sections 452.1100 to 452.1122; or

19 (3) Grant any other relief allowed under the law of this state other than sections 452.1100 to 20 452.1122.

21 6. The remedies provided in sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 are cumulative and do not affect 22 the availability of other remedies to prevent abduction.

23 452.1116. 1. If a petition under sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 contains allegations, and the 24 court finds that there is a credible risk that the child is imminently likely to be wrongfully removed,
25 the court may issue an ex parte warrant to take physical custody of the child.

26 2. The respondent on a petition under subsection 1 of this section must be afforded an 27 opportunity to be heard at the earliest possible time after the ex parte warrant is executed, but not
28 later than the next judicial day unless a hearing on that date is impossible. In that event, the court
29 shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible.

30 3. An ex parte warrant under subsection 1 of this section to take physical custody of a child 31 must:

32 (1) Recite the facts upon which a determination of a credible risk of imminent wrongful 33 removal of the child is based;

34 (2) Direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately;

35 (3) State the date and time for the hearing on the petition; and 36 (4) Provide for the safe interim placement of the child pending further order of the court.

37 4. If feasible, before issuing a warrant and before determining the placement of the child
38 after the warrant is executed, the court may order a search of the relevant databases of the National 39 Crime Information Center system and similar state databases to determine if either the petitioner or

1 respondent has a history of domestic violence, stalking, or child abuse or neglect.

2 5. The petition and warrant must be served on the respondent when or immediately after the 3 child is taken into physical custody.

4 6. A warrant to take physical custody of a child, issued by this state or another state, is
5 enforceable throughout this state. If the court finds that a less intrusive remedy will not be effective,
6 it may authorize law enforcement officers to enter private property to take physical custody of the 7 child. If required by exigent circumstances, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to 8 make a forcible entry at any hour.

9 7. If the court finds, after a hearing, that a petitioner sought an ex parte warrant under 10 subsection 1 of this section for the purpose of harassment or in bad faith, the court may award the 11 respondent reasonable attorney's fees, costs, and expenses.

12 8. Sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 does not affect the availability of relief allowed under the 13 law of this state other than sections 452.1100 to 452.1122.

14 452.1118. An abduction prevention order remains in effect until the earliest of:

15 (1) The time stated in the order;

16 (2) The emancipation of the child;

17 (3) The child's attaining eighteen years of age; or

18 (4) The time the order is modified, revoked, vacated, or superseded by a court with 19 jurisdiction under sections 452.740, 452.745, and 452.750 and applicable law of this state.

20 452.1120. In applying and construing sections 452.1100 to 452.1122, consideration must be 21 given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states
22 that enact it.

23 452.1122. Sections 452.1100 to 452.1122 modifies, limits, and supersedes the federal 24 Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001, et seq., but 25 does not modify, limit, or supersede Section 101(c) of the act, 15 U.S.C. Section 7001(c), or 26 authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103(b) of that act, 15 U.S.C.
27 Section 7003(b)."; and"; and 28

29 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 30 accordingly.
