House	Amendment NO
Offered By AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Committee Substitute for Senate Bill Nos. 681 & 662, Page 40, Section 163.016, Line 28, by inserting after all of the said section and line the following:
"167.151. 1. The school board	of any district, in its discretion, may admit to the school d prescribe the tuition fee to be paid by them, except as on 3 of this section and in sections 167.121, 167.131, 167.132, and 167.895.
2. Orphan children, children wi	th only one parent living, and children whose parents do not ren are between the ages of six and twenty years and are unable to pay tuition—may attend the s	schools of any district in the state in which they have a permanent or temporary home without	paying a tuition fee.
3. (1) For all school years endi	ng on or before June 30, 2023, any [person] individual who pays a school tax in any other district th	nan that in which [he] such individual resides may send [his] such individual's children to any public	school in the district in which the tax is paid and receive as a credit on the amount charged for tuition	n the amount of the school tax paid to the district; except that any [person] individual who owns real	estate of which eighty acres or more are used for agricultural purposes and upon which [his] such ind	lividual's residence is situated may send [his] such individual's children to public school in	any school district in which a part of such real estate, contiguous to that upon which [his] suc	h individual's residence is situated, lies and shall not be charged tuition therefor; so long as thirt	ty-five percent of the real estate is located in the school district of choice. The school district of	f choice shall count the children in its average daily attendance for the purpose of distribution	on of state aid through the foundation formula.
(2) For all school years beginni	ng on and after July 1, 2023, an owner of residential real property or agricultural real property or	a named beneficiary of a trust that owns residential real property or agricultural real property an	nd that pays a school tax in any district other than the district in which such owner or beneficiary resi	ides may send up to four of such owner's or beneficiary's children to a public school in any distric	ct in which such owner or trust pays such school tax. The school district or public school of choic	e shall count a child as a resident attending under this subdivision in its average daily attendar	nce for the purpose of distribution of state aid through the
Action Taken	Date

foundation formula.

- 4. (1) For all school years ending on or before June 30, 2023, any owner of agricultural land [who, pursuant to] under subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section, has the option of sending [his] such individual's children to the public schools of more than one district [shall exercise such option as provided in this subsection. Such person shall send written notice to all school districts involved specifying to which school district his children will attend by June thirtieth in which such a school year begins. If notification is not received, such children shall attend the school in which the majority of his property lies. Such person shall not send any of his children to the public schools of any district other than the one to which he has sent notice pursuant to this subsection in that school year or in which the majority of his property lies without paying tuition to such school district].
- (2) For all school years beginning on or after July 1, 2023, any owner of real property or named beneficiary of a trust that owns real property who elects to exercise the option provided in subdivision (2) of subsection 3 of this section shall exercise such option as provided in this subdivision. Such owner or beneficiary shall send written notice to all school districts involved specifying which school district each child will attend thirty days prior to enrollment. When providing such notice, such owner or beneficiary shall present proof of such owner's or trust's payment of at least three thousand dollars of school taxes levied on the real property within such school district and ownership of the real property for not less than three years. Such proof may be determined by multiplying the school taxes paid on the most recent property tax receipt by the years of property ownership.
- 5. If a pupil is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the pupil's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the pupil is attending, then the district in which the pupil attends school shall allow the pupil to attend school upon payment of tuition in the same manner in which the district allows other pupils not entitled to free instruction to attend school in the district. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to pupils attending school in a district which has an enrollment in excess of thirteen thousand pupils and not in excess of fifteen thousand pupils and which district is located in a county [of the first classification] with a charter form of government which has a population in excess of six hundred thousand persons and not in excess of nine hundred thousand persons."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.