"Further amend said bill, Page 24, Section 105.145, Line 88, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"116.225. Political subdivisions or special districts of this state shall label ballot measures of any type that are submitted to a vote of the people alphabetically in the order in which they are submitted by petition, ordinance, vote of a political subdivision or special district, or other method authorized by law. The secretary of state shall label statutory initiative and referendum measures with the letters A through I. The county governing body, unless otherwise specified by a county charter, shall label county ballot measures with the letters J through R, and the governing body of each city, town, village, township, or special district local ballot measures with the letters S through Z. Each official or governing body described in this section shall label the first ballot measure in each category with the first letter in the sequence designated for that category, and so on consecutively through the last letter designated for the category, and then begin labeling with the first letter for the category followed by an "A" and so on. A new series of letters shall be started after each election. In the event a measure is labeled prior to but not voted on at the next succeeding election, the letter or number assigned to such measure shall not be reassigned until after such measure has been voted on by the people."; and"; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
