

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

Second Regular Session, 101st GENERAL ASSEMBLY

THIRTY-THIRD DAY, MONDAY, MARCH 7, 2022

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Vescovo in the Chair.

Prayer by Representative Allen Andrews.

Holy and Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, at the sound of Your great name the mountains quake before You and the hills melt away. The earth trembles at Your presence, the world and all who live in it. We invite You into our midst today and forevermore and ask that Your ways will be found in us and the people of our great state.

Forgive us, O God, as we have turned from You and have become a faithless, idolatrous, and wayward nation.

Forgive us, O God, of our wicked ways and our arrogant pride.

Forgive us, O God, of our haughty eyes, our lying tongues, and our feet that are quick to rush into evil.

O God, please forgive us for the people we have become. Self-centered indulgence, pride, and a lack of shame over sin are now emblems of our American lifestyle, yet the farther we drift from You, O God, the more our world spirals out of control.

Stir our hearts and have mercy on us, O God. Forgive us of our rebellion and sin.

We do not deserve Your forgiveness, but through Christ, and only Him, we humbly plead for Your grace and mercy. Purify and cleanse our hearts as we repent of our sin, O God, and blot out our transgressions by Your abounding love.

Your word tells us that whoever dwells in the shelter of the Most High will rest in the shadow of the Almighty. Please, God, I pray for my colleagues and their families, and for all people near and far. May we call upon Your name and not harden our hearts toward You. May we confess with our mouths and believe in our hearts that Jesus Christ is Lord and receive the love, the joy, the peace, the forgiveness, and the everlasting life by placing our trust and hope in You.

All for the glory of God.

Amen.

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Journal of the thirty-second day was approved as printed by the following vote:

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1552, Page 11, Section 160.415, Line 370, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"Section B. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 1.140 to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall be nonseverable, and if any provision is for any reason held to be invalid, such decision shall invalidate all of the remaining provisions of this section."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Black (7), House Amendment No. 4 was adopted.

Representative Basye offered House Amendment No. 5.

House Amendment No. 5

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1552, Page 11, Section 160.415, Line 370, by inserting after all of the said line the following:

"167.151. 1. The school board of any district, in its discretion, may admit to the school pupils not entitled to free instruction and prescribe the tuition fee to be paid by them, except as provided in subdivision (2) of subsection 3 of this section and in sections 167.121, 167.131, 167.132, and 167.895.

2. Orphan children, children with only one parent living, and children whose parents do not contribute to their support—if the children are between the ages of six and twenty years and are unable to pay tuition—may attend the schools of any district in the state in which they have a permanent or temporary home without paying a tuition fee.

3. (1) For all school years ending on or before June 30, 2023, any ~~[person]~~ individual who pays a school tax in any other district than that in which ~~[he]~~ such individual resides may send ~~[his]~~ such individual's children to any public school in the district in which the tax is paid and receive as a credit on the amount charged for tuition the amount of the school tax paid to the district; except that any ~~[person]~~ individual who owns real estate of which eighty acres or more are used for agricultural purposes and upon which ~~[his]~~ such individual's residence is situated may send ~~[his]~~ such individual's children to public school in any school district in which a part of such real estate, contiguous to that upon which ~~[his]~~ such individual's residence is situated, lies and shall not be charged tuition therefor; so long as thirty-five percent of the real estate is located in the school district of choice. The school district of choice shall count the children in its average daily attendance for the purpose of distribution of state aid through the foundation formula.

(2) For all school years beginning on and after July 1, 2023, an owner of residential real property or agricultural real property or a named beneficiary of a trust that owns residential real property or agricultural real property and that pays a school tax in any district other than the district in which such owner or beneficiary resides may send up to four of such owner's or beneficiary's children to a public school in any district in which such owner or trust pays such school tax. The school district or public school of choice shall count a child as a resident attending under this subdivision in its average daily attendance for the purpose of distribution of state aid through the foundation formula.

4. (1) For all school years ending on or before June 30, 2023, any owner of agricultural land who, [pursuant to] under subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section, has the option of sending [his] such individual's children to the public schools of more than one district [shall exercise such option as provided in this subsection.— Such person shall send written notice to all school districts involved specifying to which school district his children will attend by June thirtieth in which such a school year begins. If notification is not received, such children shall attend the school in which the majority of his property lies. Such person shall not send any of his children to the public schools of any district other than the one to which he has sent notice pursuant to this subsection in that school year or in which the majority of his property lies without paying tuition to such school district].

(2) For all school years beginning on or after July 1, 2023, any owner of real property or named beneficiary of a trust that owns real property who elects to exercise the option provided in subdivision (2) of subsection 3 of this section shall exercise such option as provided in this subdivision. Such owner or beneficiary shall send written notice to all school districts involved specifying which school district each child will attend thirty days prior to enrollment. When providing such notice, such owner or beneficiary shall present proof of such owner's or trust's payment of at least three thousand dollars of school taxes levied on the real property within such school district and ownership of the real property for not less than three years. Such proof may be determined by multiplying the school taxes paid on the most recent property tax receipt by the years of property ownership.

5. If a pupil is attending school in a district other than the district of residence and the pupil's parent is teaching in the school district or is a regular employee of the school district which the pupil is attending, then the district in which the pupil attends school shall allow the pupil to attend school upon payment of tuition in the same manner in which the district allows other pupils not entitled to free instruction to attend school in the district. The provisions of this subsection shall apply only to pupils attending school in a district which has an enrollment in excess of thirteen thousand pupils and not in excess of fifteen thousand pupils and which district is located in a county ~~[of the first classification]~~ with a charter form of government which has a population in excess of six hundred thousand persons and not in excess of nine hundred thousand persons."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

On motion of Representative Basye, House Amendment No. 5 was adopted.

Representative Merideth offered House Amendment No. 6.

House Amendment No. 6

AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 1552, Page 11, Section 160.415, Line 370, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"17. The voters of any public school district may, at any election, approve by a simple majority of voters a ballot measure that allocates the local aid of that district to public schools and charter schools using a calculation different than the calculation outlined in subsection 15 of this section. The language of such a ballot measure shall clearly state the proposed calculation and its estimated fiscal impact to that school district's public schools and charter schools."; and

Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.

Representative Merideth moved that House Amendment No. 6 be adopted.

Which motion was defeated.

MOTION
