2 Senate Bill Nos. 3 & 5, Page 7, Section 143.071, Line 63, by inserting after all of said section and 3 line the following:
4

5 "143.121. 1. The Missouri adjusted gross income of a resident individual shall be the 6 taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income subject to the modifications in this section.

7 2. There shall be added to the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income:

8 (1) The amount of any federal income tax refund received for a prior year which resulted in 9 a Missouri income tax benefit. The amount added pursuant to this subdivision shall not include any 10 amount of a federal income tax refund attributable to a tax credit reducing a taxpayer's federal tax 11 liability pursuant to Public Law 116-136 or 116-260, enacted by the 116th United States Congress, 12 for the tax year beginning on or after January 1, 2020, and ending on or before December 31, 2020, 13 and deducted from Missouri adjusted gross income pursuant to section 143.171. The amount added 14 under this subdivision shall also not include any amount of a federal income tax refund attributable 15 to a tax credit reducing a taxpayer's federal tax liability under any other federal law that provides 16 direct economic impact payments to taxpayers to mitigate financial challenges related to the 17 COVID-19 pandemic, and deducted from Missouri adjusted gross income under section 143.171;

18 (2) Interest on certain governmental obligations excluded from federal gross income by 26 19 U.S.C. Section 103 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended. The previous sentence shall not 20 apply to interest on obligations of the state of Missouri or any of its political subdivisions or 21 authorities and shall not apply to the interest described in subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this 22 section. The amount added pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by the amounts applicable 23 to such interest that would have been deductible in computing the taxable income of the taxpayer 24 except only for the application of 26 U.S.C. Section 265 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended.
25 The reduction shall only be made if it is at least five hundred dollars;

26 (3) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable
27 income pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job 28 Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 2002 to the extent the amount deducted relates to property
29 purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003, and to the extent the amount deducted 30 exceeds the amount that would have been deductible pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 168 of the 31 Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as in effect on January 1, 2002;

32 (4) The amount of any deduction that is included in the computation of federal taxable 33 income for net operating loss allowed by 26 U.S.C. Section 172 of the Internal Revenue Code of 34 1986, as amended, other than the deduction allowed by 26 U.S.C. Section 172(b)(1)(G) and 26 35 U.S.C. Section 172(i) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, for a net operating loss the 36 taxpayer claims in the tax year in which the net operating loss occurred or carries forward for a

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 period of more than twenty years and carries backward for more than two years. Any amount of net
2 operating loss taken against federal taxable income but disallowed for Missouri income tax purposes 3 pursuant to this subdivision after June 18, 2002, may be carried forward and taken against any 4 income on the Missouri income tax return for a period of not more than twenty years from the year 5 of the initial loss; and

6 (5) For nonresident individuals in all taxable years ending on or after December 31, 2006, 7 the amount of any property taxes paid to another state or a political subdivision of another state for 8 which a deduction was allowed on such nonresident's federal return in the taxable year unless such 9 state, political subdivision of a state, or the District of Columbia allows a subtraction from income 10 for property taxes paid to this state for purposes of calculating income for the income tax for such 11 state, political subdivision of a state, or the District of Columbia;

12 (6) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018, any interest expense paid or 13 accrued in a previous taxable year, but allowed as a deduction under 26 U.S.C. Section 163, as 14 amended, in the current taxable year by reason of the carryforward of disallowed business interest 15 provisions of 26 U.S.C. Section 163(j), as amended. For the purposes of this subdivision, an interest 16 expense is considered paid or accrued only in the first taxable year the deduction would have been 17 allowable under 26 U.S.C. Section 163, as amended, if the limitation under 26 U.S.C. Section 18 163(j), as amended, did not exist.

19 3. There shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income the following 20 amounts to the extent included in federal adjusted gross income:

21 (1) Interest received on deposits held at a federal reserve bank or interest or dividends on 22 obligations of the United States and its territories and possessions or of any authority, commission or 23 instrumentality of the United States to the extent exempt from Missouri income taxes pursuant to the 24 laws of the United States. The amount subtracted pursuant to this subdivision shall be reduced by 25 any interest on indebtedness incurred to carry the described obligations or securities and by any 26 expenses incurred in the production of interest or dividend income described in this subdivision.
27 The reduction in the previous sentence shall only apply to the extent that such expenses including 28 amortizable bond premiums are deducted in determining the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross 29 income or included in the taxpayer's Missouri itemized deduction. The reduction shall only be made 30 if the expenses total at least five hundred dollars;

31 (2) The portion of any gain, from the sale or other disposition of property having a higher 32 adjusted basis to the taxpayer for Missouri income tax purposes than for federal income tax 33 purposes on December 31, 1972, that does not exceed such difference in basis. If a gain is 34 considered a long-term capital gain for federal income tax purposes, the modification shall be 35 limited to one-half of such portion of the gain;

36 (3) The amount necessary to prevent the taxation pursuant to this chapter of any annuity or 37 other amount of income or gain which was properly included in income or gain and was taxed 38 pursuant to the laws of Missouri for a taxable year prior to January 1, 1973, to the taxpayer, or to a 39 decedent by reason of whose death the taxpayer acquired the right to receive the income or gain, or 40 to a trust or estate from which the taxpayer received the income or gain;

41 (4) Accumulation distributions received by a taxpayer as a beneficiary of a trust to the 42 extent that the same are included in federal adjusted gross income;

43 (5) The amount of any state income tax refund for a prior year which was included in the 44 federal adjusted gross income;

45 (6) The portion of capital gain specified in section 135.357 that would otherwise be included 46 in federal adjusted gross income;

47 (7) The amount that would have been deducted in the computation of federal taxable income 48 pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as in effect on January 1, 2002, to 49 the extent that amount relates to property purchased on or after July 1, 2002, but before July 1, 2003,

1 and to the extent that amount exceeds the amount actually deducted pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 2 168 of the Internal Revenue Code as amended by the Job Creation and Worker Assistance Act of 3 2002;

4 (8) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2005, the amount of any income 5 received for military service while the taxpayer serves in a combat zone which is included in federal 6 adjusted gross income and not otherwise excluded therefrom. As used in this section, "combat 7 zone" means any area which the President of the United States by Executive Order designates as an 8 area in which Armed Forces of the United States are or have engaged in combat. Service is 9 performed in a combat zone only if performed on or after the date designated by the President by 10 Executive Order as the date of the commencing of combat activities in such zone, and on or before 11 the date designated by the President by Executive Order as the date of the termination of combatant 12 activities in such zone;

13 (9) For all tax years ending on or after July 1, 2002, with respect to qualified property that is 14 sold or otherwise disposed of during a taxable year by a taxpayer and for which an additional 15 modification was made under subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section, the amount by which 16 additional modification made under subdivision (3) of subsection 2 of this section on qualified 17 property has not been recovered through the additional subtractions provided in subdivision (7) of 18 this subsection;

19 (10) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2014, the amount of any income 20 received as payment from any program which provides compensation to agricultural producers who 21 have suffered a loss as the result of a disaster or emergency, including the:

- 22 (a) Livestock Forage Disaster Program;
- 23 (b) Livestock Indemnity Program;
- 24 (c) Emergency Assistance for Livestock, Honeybees, and Farm-Raised Fish;
- 25 (d) Emergency Conservation Program;
- 26 (e) Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program;
- 27 (f) Pasture, Rangeland, Forage Pilot Insurance Program;
- 28 (g) Annual Forage Pilot Program;
- 29 (h) Livestock Risk Protection Insurance Plan;
- 30 (i) Livestock Gross Margin Insurance Plan;

31 (11) For all tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2018, any interest expense paid or 32 accrued in the current taxable year, but not deducted as a result of the limitation imposed under 26 33 U.S.C. Section 163(j), as amended. For the purposes of this subdivision, an interest expense is 34 considered paid or accrued only in the first taxable year the deduction would have been allowable 35 under 26 U.S.C. Section 163, as amended, if the limitation under 26 U.S.C. Section 163(j), as 36 amended, did not exist; ~~and~~

37 (12) One hundred percent of any retirement benefits received by any taxpayer as a result of 38 the taxpayer's service in the Armed Forces of the United States, including reserve components and 39 the National Guard of this state, as defined in 32 U.S.C. Sections 101(3) and 109, and any other 40 military force organized under the laws of this state; and 41 (13) For taxpayers authorized to conduct business under Article XIV of the Constitution of 42 Missouri, the amount that would have been deducted from the computation of the taxpayer's federal 43 taxable income if such a deduction were not disallowed under 26 U.S.C. Section 280E, as in effect 44 on January 1, 2022, because of the status of marijuana as a controlled substance under federal law.

45 4. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income 46 the taxpayer's share of the Missouri fiduciary adjustment provided in section 143.351.

47 5. There shall be added to or subtracted from the taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income 48 the modifications provided in section 143.411.

49 6. In addition to the modifications to a taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income in this

1 section, to calculate Missouri adjusted gross income there shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's 2 federal adjusted gross income any gain recognized pursuant to 26 U.S.C. Section 1033 of the 3 Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, arising from compulsory or involuntary conversion of 4 property as a result of condemnation or the imminence thereof.

5 7. (1) As used in this subsection, "qualified health insurance premium" means the amount 6 paid during the tax year by such taxpayer for any insurance policy primarily providing health care 7 coverage for the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse, or the taxpayer's dependents.

8 (2) In addition to the subtractions in subsection 3 of this section, one hundred percent of the 9 amount of qualified health insurance premiums shall be subtracted from the taxpayer's federal 10 adjusted gross income to the extent the amount paid for such premiums is included in federal 11 taxable income. The taxpayer shall provide the department of revenue with proof of the amount of 12 qualified health insurance premiums paid.

13 8. (1) Beginning January 1, 2014, in addition to the subtractions provided in this section, 14 one hundred percent of the cost incurred by a taxpayer for a home energy audit conducted by an 15 entity certified by the department of natural resources under section 640.153 or the implementation 16 of any energy efficiency recommendations made in such an audit shall be subtracted from the 17 taxpayer's federal adjusted gross income to the extent the amount paid for any such activity is 18 included in federal taxable income. The taxpayer shall provide the department of revenue with a 19 summary of any recommendations made in a qualified home energy audit, the name and 20 certification number of the qualified home energy auditor who conducted the audit, and proof of the 21 amount paid for any activities under this subsection for which a deduction is claimed. The taxpayer 22 shall also provide a copy of the summary of any recommendations made in a qualified home energy 23 audit to the department of natural resources.

24 (2) At no time shall a deduction claimed under this subsection by an individual taxpayer or 25 taxpayers filing combined returns exceed one thousand dollars per year for individual taxpayers or 26 cumulatively exceed two thousand dollars per year for taxpayers filing combined returns.

27 (3) Any deduction claimed under this subsection shall be claimed for the tax year in which 28 the qualified home energy audit was conducted or in which the implementation of the energy 29 efficiency recommendations occurred. If implementation of the energy efficiency recommendations 30 occurred during more than one year, the deduction may be claimed in more than one year, subject to 31 the limitations provided under subdivision (2) of this subsection.

32 (4) A deduction shall not be claimed for any otherwise eligible activity under this subsection 33 if such activity qualified for and received any rebate or other incentive through a state-sponsored 34 energy program or through an electric corporation, gas corporation, electric cooperative, or 35 municipally owned utility.

36 9. The provisions of subsection 8 of this section shall expire on December 31, 2020."; and 37

38 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 39 accordingly.
