"192.260. The county commissions of the several counties of this state may appoint a duly licensed qualified physician as a county health officer for a term of one year, and in the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer, such commission may appoint a duly licensed qualified physician for the unexpired term. If the incumbent county health officer shall no be reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the vacancy is filled. If the county commission of any county decides to appoint a county health office as empowered in this law, it shall agree with the officer as to the compensation and expenses to be paid for such service, which amount shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to require the county commission of any county to appoint a county health officer in any county."; and  Further amend said bill and page, Section 192.775, Line 6, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:  "205.100. The county commission or commissions shall annually at their February meeting appoint the director of the public health center as county health officer [and such]. In the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer or the incumbent county health officer is not reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the vacancy is filled. The county health officer shall exercise all of the rights and perform all of the duties pertaining to that office as set forward under the health laws of the state and rules and regulations of the department of health and senior services."; and	House	Amendment NO
Senate Bill No. 106, Page 3, Section 191.240, Line 23, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:  "192.260. The county commissions of the several counties of this state may appoint a duly licensed qualified physician as a county health officer for a term of one year, and in the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer, such commission may appoint a duly licensed qualified physician for the unexpired term. If the incumbent county health officer shall not be reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer shall not be reappointed. If the county commission of any county decides to appoint a county health officer is empowered in this law, it shall agree with the officer as to the compensation and expenses to be paid for such service, which amount shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to require the county commission of any county to appoint a county health officer in any county."; and  Further amend said bill and page, Section 192.775, Line 6, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:  "205.100. The county commission or commissions shall annually at their February meeting appoint the director of the public health center as county health officer [and-sueh]. In the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer or the incumbent county health officer in otreappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer in the duties pertaining to that office as set forward under the health laws of the state and rules and regulations of the department of health and senior services."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.		Offered By icensed qualified physician as a county health officer for a term of one year, and in the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer, such commission may appoint a duly icensed qualified physician for the unexpired term. If the incumbent county health officer shall not be reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the vacancy is filled. If the county commission of any county decides to appoint a county health officer as empowered in this law, it shall agree with the officer as to the compensation and expenses to be paid for such service, which amount shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county. Nothing contained herein shall be construed to require the county commission of any county to appoint a county health officer in any county."; and  Further amend said bill and page, Section 192.775, Line 6, by inserting after all of said section and tine the following:  "205.100. The county commission or commissions shall annually at their February meeting appoint the director of the public health center as county health officer [and-sueh]. In the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer or the incumbent county health officer is not reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the vacancy is filled. The county health officer shall exercise all of the rights and perform all of the duties pertaining to that office as set forward under the health laws of the state and rules and regulations of the department of health and senior services."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
"205.100. The county commission or commissions shall annually at their February meeting appoint the director of the public health center as county health officer [and such]. In the event a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer or the incumbent county health officer is not reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the vacancy is filled. The county health officer shall exercise all of the rights and perform all of the duties pertaining to that office as set forward under the health laws of the state and rules and regulations of the department of health and senior services."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	licensed qualified physicia vacancy is created in the or licensed qualified physicia be reappointed, the county vacancy is filled. If the coas empowered in this law, paid for such service, which contained herein shall be contained to the contained to the contained physician physician properties.	as a county health officer for a term of one year, and in the event a fice of the county health officer, such commission may appoint a duly for the unexpired term. If the incumbent county health officer shall not commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the anty commission of any county decides to appoint a county health officer the shall agree with the officer as to the compensation and expenses to be a amount shall be paid out of the county treasury of the county. Nothing construed to require the county commission of any county to appoint a vacancy is created in the office of the county health officer or the incumbent county health officer is not reappointed, the county commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the vacancy is filled. The county health officer shall exercise all of the rights and perform all of the duties pertaining to that office as set forward under the health laws of the state and rules and regulations of the department of health and senior services."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	Further amend said bill and line the following:	page, Section 192.775, Line 6, by inserting after all of said section and accordingly.	appoint the director of the vacancy is created in the or not reappointed, the county vacancy is filled. The cound duties pertaining to that of	bublic health center as county health officer [and such]. In the event a fice of the county health officer or the incumbent county health officer is commission may appoint an interim county health officer until the ty health officer shall exercise all of the rights and perform all of the fice as set forward under the health laws of the state and rules and
	Further amend said bill by accordingly.	amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
A ofton Lakon	Action Taken	Date