2 by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

4 "595.209. 1. The following rights shall automatically be afforded to victims of dangerous
5 felonies, as defined in section 556.061, victims of murder in the first degree, as defined in section 6 565.020, victims of voluntary manslaughter, as defined in section 565.023, victims of any offense 7 under chapter 566, victims of an attempt to commit one of the preceding crimes, as defined in 8 section 562.012, and victims of domestic assault, as defined in sections 565.072 to 565.076; and,
9 upon written request, the following rights shall be afforded to victims of all other crimes and 10 witnesses of crimes:

11 (1) For victims, the right to be present at all criminal justice proceedings at which the 12 defendant has such right, including juvenile proceedings where the offense would have been a 13 felony if committed by an adult, even if the victim is called to testify or may be called to testify as a 14 witness in the case;

15 (2) For victims, the right to information about the crime, as provided for in subdivision (5)
16 of this subsection;

17 (3) For victims and witnesses, to be informed, in a timely manner, by the prosecutor's office
18 of the filing of charges, preliminary hearing dates, trial dates, continuances and the final disposition
19 of the case. Final disposition information shall be provided within five days;

20 (4) For victims, the right to confer with and to be informed by the prosecutor regarding bail
21 hearings, guilty pleas, pleas under chapter 552 or its successors, hearings, sentencing and probation 22 revocation hearings and the right to be heard at such hearings, including juvenile proceedings, 23 unless in the determination of the court the interests of justice require otherwise;

24 (5) The right to be informed by local law enforcement agencies, the appropriate juvenile 25 authorities or the custodial authority of the following:

26 (a) The status of any case concerning a crime against the victim, including juvenile offenses;

27 (b) The right to be informed by local law enforcement agencies or the appropriate juvenile 28 authorities of the availability of victim compensation assistance, assistance in obtaining

2 to the appropriate law enforcement agency by the victim or the victim's representative, and 3 emergency crisis intervention services available in the community;

4 (c) Any release of such person on bond or for any other reason;

5 (d) Within twenty-four hours, any escape by such person from a municipal detention facility,
6 county jail, a correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental health facility, 7 or the division of youth services or any agency thereof, and any subsequent recapture of such 8 person;

9 (6) For victims, the right to be informed by appropriate juvenile authorities of probation 10 revocation hearings initiated by the juvenile authority and the right to be heard at such hearings or to 11 offer a written statement, video or audio tape, counsel or a representative designated by the victim in 12 lieu of a personal appearance, the right to be informed by the board of probation and parole of 13 probation revocation hearings initiated by the board and of parole hearings, the right to be present at 14 each and every phase of parole hearings, the right to be heard at probation revocation and parole 15 hearings or to offer a written statement, video or audio tape, counsel or a representative designated 16 by the victim in lieu of a personal appearance, and the right to have, upon written request of the 17 victim, a partition set up in the probation or parole hearing room in such a way that the victim is 18 shielded from the view of the probationer or parolee, and the right to be informed by the custodial 19 mental health facility or agency thereof of any hearings for the release of a person committed 20 pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, the right to be present at such hearings, the right to be 21 heard at such hearings or to offer a written statement, video or audio tape, counsel or a 22 representative designated by the victim in lieu of personal appearance;

23 (7) For victims and witnesses, upon their written request, the right to be informed by the 24 appropriate custodial authority, including any municipal detention facility, juvenile detention 25 facility, county jail, correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental health 26 facility, division of youth services or agency thereof if the offense would have been a felony if 27 committed by an adult, postconviction or commitment pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552 of 28 the following:

29 (a) The projected date of such person's release from confinement;

30 (b) Any release of such person on bond;

31 (c) Any release of such person on furlough, work release, trial release, electronic monitoring 32 program, or to a community correctional facility or program or release for any other reason, in 33 advance of such release;

34 (d) Any scheduled parole or release hearings, including hearings under section 217.362, 35 regarding such person and any changes in the scheduling of such hearings. No such hearing shall be 36 conducted without thirty days' advance notice;

37 (e) Within twenty-four hours, any escape by such person from a municipal detention facility,
38 county jail, a correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental health facility,

1 or the division of youth services or any agency thereof, and any subsequent recapture of such
2 person;

3 (f) Any decision by a parole board, by a juvenile releasing authority or by a circuit court 4 presiding over releases pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, or by a circuit court presiding over 5 releases under section 217.362, to release such person or any decision by the governor to commute 6 the sentence of such person or pardon such person;

7 (g) Notification within thirty days of the death of such person;

8 (8) For witnesses who have been summoned by the prosecuting attorney and for victims, to 9 be notified by the prosecuting attorney in a timely manner when a court proceeding will not go on as 10 scheduled;

11 (9) For victims and witnesses, the right to reasonable protection from the defendant or any 12 person acting on behalf of the defendant from harm and threats of harm arising out of their 13 cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts;

14 (10) For victims and witnesses, on charged cases or submitted cases where no charge 15 decision has yet been made, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the status of the case and 16 of the availability of victim compensation assistance and of financial assistance and emergency and 17 crisis intervention services available within the community and information relative to applying for 18 such assistance or services, and of any final decision by the prosecuting attorney not to file charges;

19 (11) For victims, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the right to restitution which 20 shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other cause of action as otherwise provided by law;

21 (12) For victims and witnesses, to be informed by the court and the prosecuting attorney of 22 procedures to be followed in order to apply for and receive any witness fee to which they are 23 entitled;

24 (13) When a victim's property is no longer needed for evidentiary reasons or needs to be 25 retained pending an appeal, the prosecuting attorney or any law enforcement agency having 26 possession of the property shall, upon request of the victim, return such property to the victim within 27 five working days unless the property is contraband or subject to forfeiture proceedings, or provide 28 written explanation of the reason why such property shall not be returned;

29 (14) An employer may not discharge or discipline any witness, victim or member of a 30 victim's immediate family for honoring a subpoena to testify in a criminal proceeding, attending a 31 criminal proceeding, or for participating in the preparation of a criminal proceeding, or require any 32 witness, victim, or member of a victim's immediate family to use vacation time, personal time, or 33 sick leave for honoring a subpoena to testify in a criminal proceeding, attending a criminal 34 proceeding, or participating in the preparation of a criminal proceeding;

35 (15) For victims, to be provided with creditor intercession services by the prosecuting
36 attorney if the victim is unable, as a result of the crime, temporarily to meet financial obligations;

37 (16) For victims and witnesses, the right to speedy disposition of their cases, and for 38 victims, the right to speedy appellate review of their cases, provided that nothing in this subdivision 39 shall prevent the defendant from having sufficient time to prepare such defendant's defense. The

1 attorney general shall provide victims, upon their written request, case status information throughout 2 the appellate process of their cases. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply only to 3 proceedings involving the particular case to which the person is a victim or witness;

4 (17) For victims and witnesses, to be provided by the court, a secure waiting area during 5 court proceedings and to receive notification of the date, time and location of any hearing conducted 6 by the court for reconsideration of any sentence imposed, modification of such sentence or recall 7 and release of any defendant from incarceration;

8 (18) For victims, the right to receive upon request from the department of corrections a 9 photograph taken of the defendant prior to release from incarceration.

10 2. The provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall not be construed to imply any victim 11 who is incarcerated by the department of corrections or any local law enforcement agency has a 12 right to be released to attend any hearing or that the department of corrections or the local law 13 enforcement agency has any duty to transport such incarcerated victim to any hearing.

14 3. Those persons entitled to notice of events pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 of 15 this section shall provide the appropriate person or agency with their current addresses, electronic 16 mail addresses, and telephone numbers or the addresses, electronic mail addresses, or telephone 17 numbers at which they wish notification to be given.

18 4. Notification by the appropriate person or agency utilizing the statewide automated crime 19 victim notification system as established in section 650.310 shall constitute compliance with the 20 victim notification requirement of this section. If notification utilizing the statewide automated 21 crime victim notification system cannot be used, then written notification shall be sent by certified 22 mail or electronic mail to the most current address or electronic mail address provided by the victim.

23 5. Victims' rights as established in Section 32 of Article I of the Missouri Constitution or the 24 laws of this state pertaining to the rights of victims of crime shall be granted and enforced regardless 25 of the desires of a defendant and no privileges of confidentiality shall exist in favor of the defendant 26 to exclude victims or prevent their full participation in each and every phase of parole hearings or 27 probation revocation hearings. The rights of the victims granted in this section are absolute and the 28 policy of this state is that the victim's rights are paramount to the defendant's rights. The victim has 29 an absolute right to be present at any hearing in which the defendant is present before a probation 30 and parole hearing officer."; and
