AMEND House Amendment No. _____ to House Committee Substitute for Senate Bill No. 186, Page 25, Line 15, by inserting after said line the following:

"Further amend said bill, Page 28, Section 579.022, Line 10, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

"590.502. 1. For purposes of this section, the following shall mean:

(1) "Administering authority", any individual or body authorized by a law enforcement agency to hear and make final decisions regarding appeals of disciplinary actions issued by such agency;

(2) "Color of law", any act by a law enforcement officer, whether on duty or off duty, that is performed in furtherance of his or her sworn duty to enforce laws and to protect and serve the public;

(3) "Economic loss", any economic loss including, but not limited to, loss of overtime accrual, overtime income, sick time accrual, sick time, secondary employment income, holiday pay, and vacation pay;

(4) "Good cause", sufficient evidence or facts that would support a party's request for extensions of time or any other requests seeking accommodations outside the scope of the rules set out herein;

(5) "Law enforcement officer", any commissioned peace officer with the power to arrest for a violation of the criminal code who is employed by any unit of the state or any county, charter county, city, charter city, municipality, district, college, university, or any other political subdivision or is employed by the board of police commissioners as defined in chapter 84. Law enforcement officer shall not include any officer who is the highest ranking officer in the law enforcement agency.

2. Whenever a law enforcement officer is under administrative investigation or is subjected to administrative questioning that the officer reasonably believes could lead to disciplinary action, demotion, dismissal, transfer, or placement on a status that could lead to economic loss, the investigation or questioning shall be conducted under the following conditions:

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 (1) The law enforcement officer who is the subject of the investigation shall be informed, in 2 writing, of the existence and nature of the alleged violation and the individuals who will be 3 conducting the investigation. Notice shall be provided to the officer along with a copy of the 4 complaint at least twenty-four hours prior to any interrogation or interview of the officer;

5 (2) Any person, including members of the same agency or department as the officer under 6 investigation, filing a complaint against a law enforcement officer shall have the complaint 7 supported by a written statement outlining the complaint that includes the personal identifying 8 information of the person filing the complaint. All personal identifying information shall be held 9 confidential by the investigating agency;

10 (3) When a law enforcement officer is questioned or interviewed regarding matters 11 pertaining to his or her law enforcement duties or actions taken within the scope of his or her 12 employment, such questioning shall be conducted for a reasonable length of time and only while the 13 officer is on duty unless reasonable circumstances exist that necessitate questioning the officer while 14 he or she is off duty;

15 (4) Any interviews or questioning shall be conducted at a secure location at the agency that 16 is conducting the investigation or at the place where the officer reports to work, unless the officer 17 consents to another location;

18 (5) Law enforcement officers shall be questioned by up to two investigators and shall be 19 informed of the name, rank, and command of the investigator or investigators conducting the 20 investigation; except that, separate investigators shall be assigned to investigate alleged department 21 policy violations and alleged criminal violations;

22 (6) Interview sessions shall be for a reasonable period of time. There shall be times 23 provided for the officer to allow for such personal necessities and rest periods as are reasonably 24 necessary;

25 (7) Prior to an interview session, the investigator or investigators conducting the 26 investigation shall advise the law enforcement officer of the rule set out in Garrity v. New Jersey, 27 385 U.S. 493 (1967), specifically that the law enforcement officer is being ordered to answer 28 questions under threat of disciplinary action and that the officer's answers to the questions will not 29 be used against the officer in criminal proceedings;

30 (8) Law enforcement officers shall not be threatened, harassed, or promised rewards to 31 induce them into answering any question; except that, law enforcement officers may be compelled 32 by their employer to give protected Garrity statements to an investigator under the direct control of 33 the employer, but such compelled statements shall not be used or derivatively used against the 34 officer in any aspect of a criminal case brought against the officer;

35 (9) Law enforcement officers under investigation are entitled to have an attorney or any 36 duly authorized representative present during any questioning that the law enforcement officer 37 reasonably believes may result in disciplinary action. The attorney or representative shall be 38 permitted to confer with the officer but shall not unduly disrupt or interfere with the interview. The

1 questioning shall be suspended for a period of up to twenty-four hours if the officer requests 2 representation;

3 (10) Prior to the law enforcement officer being interviewed, the officer and his or her 4 attorney or representative shall have the opportunity to review the complaint;

5 (11) The law enforcement agency conducting the investigation shall have ninety days from 6 receipt of a citizen complaint to complete such investigation. The agency shall determine the 7 disposition of the complaint and render a disciplinary decision, if any, within ninety days. The 8 agency may, for good cause, petition the administering authority overseeing the administration of 9 discipline for an extension of time to complete the investigation. If the administering authority finds 10 the agency has shown good cause for the granting of an extension of time to complete the 11 investigation, the administering authority shall grant an extension of up to sixty days. The agency is 12 limited to two extensions per investigation; except that, if there is an ongoing criminal investigation 13 there shall be no limitation on the amount of sixty-day extensions. For good cause shown, the 14 internal investigation may be tolled until the conclusion of a concurrent criminal investigation 15 arising out of the same alleged conduct. Absent consent from the officer being investigated, the 16 administering authority overseeing the administration of discipline shall set the matter for hearing 17 and shall provide notice of the hearing to the law enforcement officer under investigation. The 18 officer shall have the right to attend the hearing and to present evidence and arguments against 19 extension;

20 (12) Within five days of the conclusion of the administrative investigation, the investigator 21 shall inform the officer, in writing, of the investigative findings and any recommendation for further 22 action, including discipline;

23 (13) A complete record of the administrative investigation shall be kept by the law 24 enforcement agency conducting such investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, a copy of 25 the entire record, including, but not limited to, audio, video, and transcribed statements, shall be 26 provided to the officer or the officer's representative within five business days of the officer's written 27 request. The agency may request a protective order to redact all personal identifying witness 28 information; and

29 (14) All records compiled as a result of any investigation subject to the provisions of this 30 section shall be held confidential and shall not be subject to disclosure under chapter 610, except by 31 lawful subpoena or court order, by release approved by the officer, or as provided in section 32 590.070.

33 3. Law enforcement officers who are suspended without pay, demoted, terminated, 34 transferred, or placed on a status resulting in economic loss shall be entitled to a full due process 35 hearing. However, nothing in this section shall prohibit a law enforcement agency and the 36 authorized bargaining representative for a law enforcement officer employed by that agency from 37 reaching written agreements providing disciplinary procedures more favorable than those provided 38 for this section. The components of the hearing shall include, at a minimum:

1 (1) The right to be represented by an attorney or other individual of their choice during the 2 hearing;

3 (2) Seven days' notice of the hearing date and time;

4 (3) An opportunity to access and review documents, at least seven days in advance of the 5 hearing, that are in the employer's possession and that were used as a basis for the disciplinary 6 action;

7 (4) The right to refuse to testify at the hearing if the officer is concurrently facing criminal 8 charges in connection with the same incident. A law enforcement officer's decision not to testify 9 shall not result in additional internal charges or discipline;

10 (5) A complete record of the hearing shall be kept by the agency for purposes of appeal.
11 The record shall be provided to the officer or his or her attorney upon written request;

12 (6) The entire record of the hearing shall remain confidential and shall not be subject to 13 disclosure under chapter 610, except by lawful subpoena or court order.

14 4. Any decision, order, or action taken following the hearing shall be in writing and shall be 15 accompanied by findings of fact. The findings shall consist of a concise statement upon each issue 16 in the case. A copy of the decision or order accompanying findings and conclusions along with the 17 written action and right of appeal, if any, shall be delivered or mailed promptly to the law 18 enforcement officer or to the officer's attorney or representative of record.

19 5. Law enforcement officers shall have the opportunity to provide a written response to any 20 adverse materials placed in their personnel file, and such written response shall be permanently 21 attached to the adverse material.

22 6. Law enforcement officers shall have the right to compensation for any economic loss 23 incurred during an investigation if the officer is found to have committed no misconduct.

24 7. Employers shall defend and indemnify law enforcement officers from and against civil 25 claims made against them in their official and individual capacities if the alleged conduct arose in 26 the course and scope of their obligations and duties as law enforcement officers. This includes any 27 actions taken off duty if such actions were taken under color of law. In the event the law 28 enforcement officer is convicted of, or pleads guilty to, criminal charges arising out of the same 29 conduct, the employer shall no longer be obligated to defend and indemnify the officer in 30 connection with related civil claims.

31 8. Law enforcement officers shall not be disciplined, demoted, dismissed, transferred, or 32 placed on a status resulting in economic loss as a result of the assertion of their constitutional rights 33 in any judicial proceeding, unless the officer admits to wrongdoing, in which case the provisions of 34 this section shall not apply.

35 9. Any aggrieved law enforcement officer or authorized representative may seek judicial 36 enforcement of the requirements of this section. Suits to enforce this section shall be brought in the 37 circuit court for the county in which the law enforcement agency or governmental body has its 38 principal place of business.

1 10. Upon a finding by a preponderance of the evidence that a law enforcement agency, 2 governmental body, or member of same has violated any provision of this section, a court shall void
3 any action taken in violation of this section. The court may also award the law enforcement officer
4 the costs of bringing the suit including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees. A lawsuit for enforcement 5 shall be brought within one year from which the violation is ascertainable.

6 11. Nothing in this section shall apply to any investigation or other action by the director 7 regarding a license issued by the director under this chapter.

8 12. A law enforcement agency that has substantially similar or greater procedures shall be 9 deemed in compliance with this section.

10 13. Nothing in this section shall apply to the work of any civilian review board organized 11 under section 590.653 or organized by local ordinance."; and"; and
