AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Resolution No. 11, Pages 34-35, Lines 889-906, by deleting all of said lines and inserting in lieu thereof the following:  "(2) A committee [may] shall allow for remote public testimony via telephone or video conferencing [with the approval of the committee at least one committee hearing in advance. If a committee is to consider remote testimony for specific legislation, that information shall be included on the committee notice so that individuals who desire to testify remotely may request to do so]. A request to testify remotely must be received [or-made] by the chair [or-ranking member of the committee by the time of the committee hearing to consider allowing remote testimony] at least twenty-four hours in advance of the hearing. [In order to allow remote testimony]. The committee [shall approve a remote testimony schedule, which shall] may impose reasonable restrictions on remote public testimony, which may include the length of time allowed for such testimony[s], the number of witnesses allowed to testify remotely, and any division of such time among proponents, opponents, and those who wish to testify for information purposes[-and-a-ist-of-those-approved-to-testify]. Only individuals who [receive approval to testify remotely from the committee and who] submit a completed, signed witness form shall be allowed to do so."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.	House	Amendment NO
"(2) A committee [may] shall allow for remote public testimony via telephone or video conferencing [with the approval of the committee at least one committee hearing in advance. If a committee is to consider remote testimony for specific legislation, that information shall be include on the committee notice so that individuals who desire to testify remotely may request to do so]. A request to testify remotely must be received [or-made] by the chair [or-ranking member of the committee by the time of the committee hearing to consider allowing remote testimony] at least twenty-four hours in advance of the hearing. [In order to allow remote testimony,] The committee [shall approve a remote testimony schedule, which shall] may impose reasonable restrictions on remote public testimony, which may include the length of time allowed for such testimony[s], the number of witnesses allowed to testify remotely, and any division of such time among proponents, opponents, and those who wish to testify for information purposes[-and a list of those approved to testify]. Only individuals who [receive approval to testify remotely from the committee and who] submit a completed, signed witness form shall be allowed to do so."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.		Offered By conferencing [with the approval of the committee at least one committee hearing in advance. If a committee is to consider remote testimony for specific legislation, that information shall be included on the committee notice so that individuals who desire to testify remotely may request to do so]. A request to testify remotely must be received [or made] by the chair [or ranking member of the committee by the time of the committee hearing to consider allowing remote testimony] at least twenty-four hours in advance of the hearing. [In order to allow remote testimony,] The committee [shall approve a remote testimony schedule, which shall] may impose reasonable restrictions on remote public testimony, which may include the length of time allowed for such testimony[s], the number of witnesses allowed to testify remotely, and any division of such time among proponents, opponents, and those who wish to testify for information purposes[; and a list of those approved to testify]. Only individuals who [receive approval to testify remotely from the committee and who] submit a completed, signed witness form shall be allowed to do so."; and  Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
accordingly.	conferencing [with the app committee is to consider re on the committee notice so request to testify remotely committee by the time of the twenty-four hours in advant [shall approve a remote test remote public testimony, when the state of the testify]. Only individuals we consider remote the state of the twenty-four hours in advantage and the state of the testify.	roval of the committee at least one committee hearing in advance. If a smote testimony for specific legislation, that information shall be included that individuals who desire to testify remotely may request to do so]. A must be received [or made] by the chair [or ranking member of the he committee hearing to consider allowing remote testimony] at least acce of the hearing. [In order to allow remote testimony,] The committee stimony schedule, which shall] may impose reasonable restrictions on which may include the length of time allowed for such testimony [;], the ed to testify remotely, and any division of such time among proponents, wish to testify for information purposes [; and a list of those approved to who [receive approval to testify remotely from the committee and who]
Action Taken	Further amend said bill by accordingly.	amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references
Action Taken
A ation Takan
Action Taken
Action Taken
Action Taltan
	A ation Tales	Dete