Offered By
Offered By
AMEND House Committee Substitute for Senate Substitute for Senate Bill Section 568.050, Line 27, by inserting after said section and line the following
"632.305. 1. An application for detention for evaluation and treatm any adult person, who need not be an attorney or represented by an attorney health coordinator, on a form provided by the court for such purpose, and sh without a notarization requirement, that the applicant has reason to believe to suffering from a mental disorder and presents a likelihood of serious harm to others. The application shall specify the factual information on which such should contain the names and addresses of all persons known to the application such facts through personal observation.  2. The filing of a written application in court by any adult person, we attorney or represented by an attorney, including the mental health coordinational applicant to bring the matter before the court on an exparte basis to determine respondent should be taken into custody and transported to a mental health may be filed in the court having probate jurisdiction in any county where the found. If the court finds that there is probable cause, either upon testimony review of affidavits, declarations, or other supporting documentation, to bel may be suffering from a mental disorder and presents a likelihood of serious herself or others, it shall direct a peace officer to take the respondent into cut or her to a mental health facility for detention for evaluation and treatment in ninety-six hours unless further detention and treatment is authorized pursuan Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the court, in the exercise of its the respondent an opportunity to be heard.  3. A mental health coordinator may request a peace officer to take of take a person into custody for detention for evaluation and treatment for a piniety-six hours only when such mental health coordinator or peace officer believe that such person is suffering from a mental disorder and that the like	ent may be executed by a including the mental hall allege under oath, that the respondent is to himself or herself or to belief is based and that who have knowledge who need not be an tor, shall authorize the facility. The application is respondent may be under oath or upon a lieve that the respondent is harm to himself or estody and transport him for a period not to exceed that the this chapter.  I discretion, from giving or a peace officer may be eriod not to exceed that reasonable cause to coordinator who conveyed such person or caused him or her to be conveyed shall either present the application for detention for evaluation and treatment upon which the court has issued a finding of probable cause and the respondent was taken into custody or complete an application for initial detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours which shall be based upon his or her own personal observations or investigations and shall contain the information required in subsection 1 of this section.

Action Taken_

Date _____

- 4. If a person presents himself or herself or is presented by others to a mental health facility and a licensed physician, a registered professional nurse or a mental health professional designated by the head of the facility and approved by the department for such purpose has reasonable cause to believe that the person is mentally disordered and presents an imminent likelihood of serious harm to himself or herself or others unless he or she is accepted for detention, the licensed physician, the mental health professional or the registered professional nurse designated by the facility and approved by the department may complete an application for detention for evaluation and treatment for a period not to exceed ninety-six hours. The application shall be based on his or her own personal observations or investigation and shall contain the information required in subsection 1 of this section.
- 5. [Any oath required by the provisions of this section] No notarization shall be required for an application or for any affidavits, declarations, or other documents supporting an application. The application and any affidavits, declarations, or other documents supporting the application shall be subject to the provisions of section 492.060 allowing for declaration under penalty of perjury."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.