	House		Amendment NO
Page 46, Section 361.715, Line 14, by inserting after all of said section and line the following: "362.034. 1. Any entity that operates as a facility licensed or certified under Article XIV the Constitution of Missouri may request in writing that a state or local licensing authority of agency, including, but not limited to, the department of health and senior services or department or revenue, share the entity's application, license, or other regulatory and financial information with banking institution. A state or local licensing authority or agency may also share such information with the banking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies. 2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential oprivilege information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of		Offered By the Constitution of Missouri may request in writing that a state or local licensing authority of agency, including, but not limited to, the department of health and senior services or department of revenue, share the entity's application, license, or other regulatory and financial information with banking institution. A state or local licensing authority or agency may also share such information with the banking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies. 2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information aconfidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;			· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · agency, including, but not limited to, the department of health and senior services or department of revenue, share the entity's application, license, or other regulatory and financial information with banking institution. A state or local licensing authority or agency may also share such information with the banking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies. 2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information acconfidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	"30	52.034. 1. Any entity that operates as a facility licensed or ce	ertified under Article XIV o
revenue, share the entity's application, license, or other regulatory and financial information with banking institution. A state or local licensing authority or agency may also share such information with the banking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies. 2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information acconfidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential or privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Misson Constitution:	the Const	itution of Missouri may request in writing that a state or	local licensing authority of banking institution. A state or local licensing authority or agency may also share such information with the banking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies. 2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information acconfidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	agency, in	cluding, but not limited to, the department of health and senion	or services or department of
with the banking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies. 2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information acconfidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section, shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	revenue, s	hare the entity's application, license, or other regulatory and	financial information with
2. In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or agency is properly maintaining the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information acconfidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	banking in	stitution. A state or local licensing authority or agency may	also share such information the confidentiality of individualized data, information, or records, an entity shall include in the written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential aprivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution:	with the b	anking institution's state and federal supervisory agencies.
written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential or privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	2.	In order to ensure the state or local licensing authority or age	ency is properly maintaining or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized dat information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential or privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	the confid	entiality of individualized data, information, or records, an	entity shall include in the information, or records. 3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information a confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential oprivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	written request a waiver giving authorization for the transfer of the individualized data, information
3. This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information by a state or local licensing authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information a confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential optivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	or records and waiving any confidentiality or privilege that applies to that individualized data authority or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services by banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information a confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential oprivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	informatio	n, or records.
banking institution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section. 4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information a confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential optivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	3.	This section shall only apply to the disclosure of information	by a state or local licensing
4. The recipient of any information pursuant to this section shall treat such information a confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential oprivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Misson Constitution;	authority	or agency reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision	of financial services by confidential and use it only for the purposes described in this section. 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential or privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Misson Constitution;	banking ir	stitution to the entity making a request pursuant to this section	l.
 5. Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the disclosure of confidential optivileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Misson Constitution; 	4.	The recipient of any information pursuant to this section sha	all treat such information a privileged information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidentiality or privilege, except a reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Misson Constitution;	confidenti	al and use it only for the purposes described in this section.
reasonably necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services for the entity making the request. 6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Misson Constitution;	5.	Nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize the construence the construence the construence the construction that are also and the construence the con	disclosure of confidential o
6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	privileged	information, nor waive an entity's rights to assert confidenti	ality or privilege, except a
6. An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section may withdraw the waive with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missou Constitution;	reasonably	necessary to facilitate the provision of financial services	for the entity making the
with thirty days' notice in writing. 7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missour Constitution;	request.
7. Nothing in this section shall be construed to modify the requirements of chapter 610. 8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missour Constitution;	6.	An entity that has provided a waiver pursuant to this section	n may withdraw the waive
8. For purposes of this section, the following terms mean: (1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missour Constitution;	with thirty	days' notice in writing.
(1) "Banking institution", the same meaning as in Article IV, Section 15 of the Missour Constitution;		·	rements of chapter 610.
Constitution;		• •
	\		Section 15 of the Missour
(2) "Entity", the same meaning as in Article XIV of the Missouri Constitution."; and
	(2)	"Entity", the same meaning as in Article XIV of the Missouri	i Constitution."; and
Action Taken Date	٨ مد:	on Takan	Data

- Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
- 1 2