21 in an amount equal to the taxpayer's qualified amount.

18 years of carryover available to the transferor at the time of the transfer unless earlier exhausted.

20 of credit properly available under this section is less than the amount claimed by the transferor of

29 of the income tax credit provided for in this section, including provisions for the verification of the 30 timeliness of a claim, the process and documentation required for the department of economic 31 development to approve an income tax credit for qualified railroad expenditures or qualified new 32 rail infrastructure expenditures, and any documentation that the department of economic 33 development shall require in order to determine that an eligible taxpayer, eligible customer, or 34 eligible vendor meets the requirements of this section. In addition to other needed rules, the 35 department of economic development may promulgate rules prescribing, in the case of S 36 corporations, partnerships, trusts, or estates, a method of attributing the credit under this section to 37 the shareholders, partners, or beneficiaries in proportion to their share of the income from the S 38 corporation, partnership, trust, or estate.

2 promulgate all necessary rules and regulations for the administration of this section including, but 3 not limited to, rules relating to the verification of a taxpayer's qualified amount. Any rule or portion 4 of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created under the authority delegated in 5 this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is subject to all of the provisions of 6 chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and chapter 536 are nonseverable and 7 if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to chapter 536 to review, to delay the 8 effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently held unconstitutional, then the 9 grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after August 28, 2023, shall be 10 invalid and void.
