24 probation revocation hearings initiated by the board and of parole hearings, the right to be present at 25 each and every phase of parole hearings, the right to be heard at probation revocation and parole
26 hearings or to offer a written statement, video or audio tape, counsel or a representative designated 27 by the victim in lieu of a personal appearance, and the right to have, upon written request of the 28 victim, a partition set up in the probation or parole hearing room in such a way that the victim is 29 shielded from the view of the probationer or parolee, and the right to be informed by the custodial 30 mental health facility or agency thereof of any hearings for the release of a person committed 31 pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, the right to be present at such hearings, the right to be 32 heard at such hearings or to offer a written statement, video or audio tape, counsel or a 33 representative designated by the victim in lieu of personal appearance;

34 (7) For victims and witnesses, upon their written request, the right to be informed by the 35 appropriate custodial authority, including any municipal detention facility, juvenile detention
36 facility, county jail, correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental health 37 facility, division of youth services or agency thereof if the offense would have been a felony if 38 committed by an adult, postconviction or commitment pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552 of 39 the following:

- 1 (a) The projected date of such person's release from confinement;
- 2 (b) Any release of such person on bond;
- 3 (c) Any release of such person on furlough, work release, trial release, electronic monitoring 4 program, or to a community correctional facility or program or release for any other reason, in 5 advance of such release;
- 6 (d) Any scheduled parole or release hearings, including hearings under section 217.362,
7 regarding such person and any changes in the scheduling of such hearings. No such hearing shall be 8 conducted without thirty days' advance notice;
- 9 (e) Within twenty-four hours, any escape by such person from a municipal detention facility,
10 county jail, a correctional facility operated by the department of corrections, mental health facility,
11 or the division of youth services or any agency thereof, and any subsequent recapture of such 12 person;
- 13 (f) Any decision by a parole board, by a juvenile releasing authority or by a circuit court
14 presiding over releases pursuant to the provisions of chapter 552, or by a circuit court presiding over 15 releases under section 217.362, to release such person or any decision by the governor to commute
16 the sentence of such person or pardon such person;
- 17 (g) Notification within thirty days of the death of such person;
- 18 (8) For witnesses who have been summoned by the prosecuting attorney and for victims, to 19 be notified by the prosecuting attorney in a timely manner when a court proceeding will not go on as 20 scheduled;
- 21 (9) For victims and witnesses, the right to reasonable protection from the defendant or any 22 person acting on behalf of the defendant from harm and threats of harm arising out of their 23 cooperation with law enforcement and prosecution efforts;
- 24 (10) For victims and witnesses, on charged cases or submitted cases where no charge 25 decision has yet been made, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the status of the case and 26 of the availability of victim compensation assistance and of financial assistance and emergency and 27 crisis intervention services available within the community and information relative to applying for 28 such assistance or services, and of any final decision by the prosecuting attorney not to file charges;
- 29 (11) For victims, to be informed by the prosecuting attorney of the right to restitution which 30 shall be enforceable in the same manner as any other cause of action as otherwise provided by law;
- 31 (12) For victims and witnesses, to be informed by the court and the prosecuting attorney of 32 procedures to be followed in order to apply for and receive any witness fee to which they are 33 entitled;
- 34 (13) When a victim's property is no longer needed for evidentiary reasons or needs to be 35 retained pending an appeal, the prosecuting attorney or any law enforcement agency having 36 possession of the property shall, upon request of the victim, return such property to the victim within 37 five working days unless the property is contraband or subject to forfeiture proceedings, or provide 38 written explanation of the reason why such property shall not be returned;

(14) An employer may not discharge or discipline any witness, victim or member of a victim's immediate family for honoring a subpoena to testify in a criminal proceeding, attending a criminal proceeding, or for participating in the preparation of a criminal proceeding, or require any witness, victim, or member of a victim's immediate family to use vacation time, personal time, or sick leave for honoring a subpoena to testify in a criminal proceeding, attending a criminal proceeding, or participating in the preparation of a criminal proceeding;

(15) For victims, to be provided with creditor intercession services by the prosecuting attorney if the victim is unable, as a result of the crime, temporarily to meet financial obligations;

(16) For victims and witnesses, the right to speedy disposition of their cases, and for victims, the right to speedy appellate review of their cases, provided that nothing in this subdivision shall prevent the defendant from having sufficient time to prepare such defendant's defense. The attorney general shall provide victims, upon their written request, case status information throughout the appellate process of their cases. The provisions of this subdivision shall apply only to proceedings involving the particular case to which the person is a victim or witness;

(17) For victims and witnesses, to be provided by the court, a secure waiting area during court proceedings and to receive notification of the date, time and location of any hearing conducted by the court for reconsideration of any sentence imposed, modification of such sentence or recall and release of any defendant from incarceration;

(18) For victims, the right to receive upon request from the department of corrections a photograph taken of the defendant prior to release from incarceration.

2. The provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall not be construed to imply any victim who is incarcerated by the department of corrections or any local law enforcement agency has a right to be released to attend any hearing or that the department of corrections or the local law enforcement agency has any duty to transport such incarcerated victim to any hearing.

3. Those persons entitled to notice of events pursuant to the provisions of subsection 1 of this section shall provide the appropriate person or agency with their current addresses, electronic mail addresses, and telephone numbers or the addresses, electronic mail addresses, or telephone numbers at which they wish notification to be given.

4. Notification by the appropriate person or agency utilizing the statewide automated crime victim notification system as established in section 650.310 shall constitute compliance with the victim notification requirement of this section. If notification utilizing the statewide automated crime victim notification system cannot be used, then written notification shall be sent by certified mail or electronic mail to the most current address or electronic mail address provided by the victim.

5. Victims' rights as established in Section 32 of Article I of the Missouri Constitution or the laws of this state pertaining to the rights of victims of crime shall be granted and enforced regardless of the desires of a defendant and no privileges of confidentiality shall exist in favor of the defendant to exclude victims or prevent their full participation in each and every phase of parole hearings or probation revocation hearings. The rights of the victims granted in this section are absolute and the policy of this state is that the victim's rights are paramount to the defendant's rights. The victim has

1 an absolute right to be present at any hearing in which the defendant is present before a probation
2 and parole hearing officer."; and
