

House _____ Amendment NO. _____

Offered By

1 AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill Nos. 1108 & 1181, Page 43, Section 589.414, 2 Line 215, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:

4 "590.502. 1. For purposes of this section, the following shall mean:

5 (1) "Administering authority", any individual or body authorized by a law enforcement 6 agency to hear and make final decisions regarding appeals of disciplinary actions issued by such 7 agency;

8 (2) "Color of law", any act by a law enforcement officer, whether on duty or off duty, that is 9 performed in furtherance of his or her sworn duty to enforce laws and to protect and serve the 10 public;

11 (3) "Economic loss", any economic loss including, but not limited to, loss of overtime 12 accrual, overtime income, sick time accrual, sick time, secondary employment income, holiday pay, 13 and vacation pay;

14 (4) "Good cause", sufficient evidence or facts that would support a party's request for 15 extensions of time or any other requests seeking accommodations outside the scope of the rules set 16 out herein;

17 (5) "Law enforcement officer", any commissioned peace officer with the power to arrest for 18 a violation of the criminal code who is employed by any unit of the state or any county, charter 19 county, city, charter city, municipality, district, college, university, or any other political subdivision
20 or is employed by the board of police commissioners as defined in chapter 84. Law enforcement 21 officer shall not include any officer who is the highest ranking officer in the law enforcement 22 agency.

23 2. Whenever a law enforcement officer is under administrative investigation or is subjected 24 to administrative questioning that the officer reasonably believes could lead to disciplinary action, 25 demotion, dismissal, transfer, or placement on a status that could lead to economic loss, the 26 investigation or questioning shall be conducted under the following conditions:

27 (1) The law enforcement officer who is the subject of the investigation shall be informed, in 28 writing, of the existence and nature of the alleged violation and the individuals who will be 29 conducting the investigation. Notice shall be provided to the officer along with a copy of the 30 complaint at least twenty-four hours prior to any interrogation or interview of the officer;

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 (2) Any person, including members of the same agency or department as the officer under 2 investigation, filing a complaint against a law enforcement officer shall have the complaint 3 supported by a written statement outlining the complaint that includes the personal identifying 4 information of the person filing the complaint. All personal identifying information shall be held 5 confidential by the investigating agency;

6 (3) When a law enforcement officer is questioned or interviewed regarding matters 7 pertaining to his or her law enforcement duties or actions taken within the scope of his or her 8 employment, such questioning shall be conducted for a reasonable length of time and only while the 9 officer is on duty unless reasonable circumstances exist that necessitate questioning the officer while 10 he or she is off duty;

11 (4) Any interviews or questioning shall be conducted at a secure location at the agency that 12 is conducting the investigation or at the place where the officer reports to work, unless the officer 13 consents to another location;

14 (5) Law enforcement officers shall be questioned by up to two investigators and shall be 15 informed of the name, rank, and command of the investigator or investigators conducting the 16 investigation; except that, separate investigators shall be assigned to investigate alleged department 17 policy violations and alleged criminal violations;

18 (6) Interview sessions shall be for a reasonable period of time. There shall be times 19 provided for the officer to allow for such personal necessities and rest periods as are reasonably 20 necessary;

21 (7) Prior to an interview session, the investigator or investigators conducting the 22 investigation shall advise the law enforcement officer of the rule set out in Garrity v. New Jersey, 23 385 U.S. 493 (1967), specifically that the law enforcement officer is being ordered to answer 24 questions under threat of disciplinary action and that the officer's answers to the questions will not 25 be used against the officer in criminal proceedings;

26 (8) Law enforcement officers shall not be threatened, harassed, or promised rewards to 27 induce them into answering any question; except that, law enforcement officers may be compelled 28 by their employer to give protected Garrity statements to an investigator under the direct control of 29 the employer, but such compelled statements shall not be used or derivatively used against the 30 officer in any aspect of a criminal case brought against the officer;

31 (9) Law enforcement officers under investigation are entitled to have an attorney or any 32 duly authorized representative present during any questioning that the law enforcement officer 33 reasonably believes may result in disciplinary action. The attorney or representative shall be 34 permitted to confer with the officer but shall not unduly disrupt or interfere with the interview. The 35 questioning shall be suspended for a period of up to twenty-four hours if the officer requests 36 representation;

37 (10) Prior to the law enforcement officer being interviewed, the officer and his or her 38 attorney or representative shall have the opportunity to review the complaint;

1 (11) The law enforcement agency conducting the investigation shall have ninety days from 2 receipt of a citizen complaint to complete such investigation. The agency shall determine the 3 disposition of the complaint and render a disciplinary decision, if any, within ninety days. The 4 agency may, for good cause, petition the administering authority overseeing the administration of 5 discipline for an extension of time to complete the investigation. If the administering authority finds 6 the agency has shown good cause for the granting of an extension of time to complete the 7 investigation, the administering authority shall grant an extension of up to sixty days. The agency is 8 limited to two extensions per investigation; except that, if there is an ongoing criminal investigation 9 there shall be no limitation on the amount of sixty-day extensions. For good cause shown, the 10 internal investigation may be tolled until the conclusion of a concurrent criminal investigation 11 arising out of the same alleged conduct. Absent consent from the officer being investigated, the 12 administering authority overseeing the administration of discipline shall set the matter for hearing 13 and shall provide notice of the hearing to the law enforcement officer under investigation. The 14 officer shall have the right to attend the hearing and to present evidence and arguments against 15 extension;

16 (12) Within five days of the conclusion of the administrative investigation, the investigator 17 shall inform the officer, in writing, of the investigative findings and any recommendation for further 18 action, including discipline;

19 (13) A complete record of the administrative investigation shall be kept by the law 20 enforcement agency conducting such investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, a copy of 21 the entire record, including, but not limited to, audio, video, and transcribed statements, shall be 22 provided to the officer or the officer's representative within five business days of the officer's written 23 request. The agency may request a protective order to redact all personal identifying witness 24 information; and

25 (14) All records compiled as a result of any investigation subject to the provisions of this 26 section shall be held confidential and shall not be subject to disclosure under chapter 610, except by 27 lawful subpoena or court order, by release approved by the officer, or as provided in section 28 590.070.

29 3. Law enforcement officers who are suspended without pay, demoted, terminated, 30 transferred, or placed on a status resulting in economic loss shall be entitled to a full due process 31 hearing. However, nothing in this section shall prohibit a law enforcement agency and the 32 authorized bargaining representative for a law enforcement officer employed by that agency from 33 reaching written agreements providing disciplinary procedures more favorable than those provided 34 for this section. The components of the hearing shall include, at a minimum:

35 (1) The right to be represented by an attorney or other individual of their choice during the 36 hearing;

37 (2) Seven days' notice of the hearing date and time;

1 (3) An opportunity to access and review documents, at least seven days in advance of the 2 hearing, that are in the employer's possession and that were used as a basis for the disciplinary 3 action;

4 (4) The right to refuse to testify at the hearing if the officer is concurrently facing criminal 5 charges in connection with the same incident. A law enforcement officer's decision not to testify 6 shall not result in additional internal charges or discipline;

7 (5) A complete record of the hearing shall be kept by the agency for purposes of appeal.
8 The record shall be provided to the officer or his or her attorney upon written request;

9 (6) The entire record of the hearing shall remain confidential and shall not be subject to 10 disclosure under chapter 610, except by lawful subpoena or court order.

11 4. Any decision, order, or action taken following the hearing shall be in writing and shall be 12 accompanied by findings of fact. The findings shall consist of a concise statement upon each issue 13 in the case. A copy of the decision or order accompanying findings and conclusions along with the 14 written action and right of appeal, if any, shall be delivered or mailed promptly to the law 15 enforcement officer or to the officer's attorney or representative of record.

16 5. Law enforcement officers shall have the opportunity to provide a written response to any 17 adverse materials placed in their personnel file, and such written response shall be permanently 18 attached to the adverse material.

19 6. Law enforcement officers shall have the right to compensation for any economic loss 20 incurred during an investigation if the officer is found to have committed no misconduct.

21 7. Employers shall defend and indemnify law enforcement officers from and against civil 22 claims made against them in their official and individual capacities if the alleged conduct arose in 23 the course and scope of their obligations and duties as law enforcement officers. This includes any 24 actions taken off duty if such actions were taken under color of law. In the event the law 25 enforcement officer is convicted of, or pleads guilty to, criminal charges arising out of the same 26 conduct, the employer shall no longer be obligated to defend and indemnify the officer in 27 connection with related civil claims.

28 8. Law enforcement officers shall not be disciplined, demoted, dismissed, transferred, or 29 placed on a status resulting in economic loss as a result of the assertion of their constitutional rights 30 in any judicial proceeding, unless the officer admits to wrongdoing, in which case the provisions of 31 this section shall not apply.

32 9. Any aggrieved law enforcement officer or authorized representative may seek judicial 33 enforcement of the requirements of this section. Suits to enforce this section shall be brought in the 34 circuit court for the county in which the law enforcement agency or governmental body has its 35 principal place of business.

36 10. Upon a finding by a preponderance of the evidence that a law enforcement agency, 37 governmental body, or member of same has violated any provision of this section, a court shall void
38 any action taken in violation of this section. The court may also award the law enforcement officer

1 the costs of bringing the suit including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees. A lawsuit for enforcement 2 shall be brought within one year from which the violation is ascertainable.

3 11. Nothing in this section shall apply to any investigation or other action by the director 4 regarding a license issued by the director under this chapter.

5 12. A law enforcement agency that has substantially similar or greater procedures shall be 6 deemed in compliance with this section.

7 13. Nothing in this section shall apply to the work of any civilian review board organized 8 under section 590.653 or organized by local ordinance."; and

9
10 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 11 accordingly.
