FISCAL ANALYSIS

ASSUMPTION

Officials from the Department of Elementary and Secondary Education, Department of Health and Senior Services and the Department of Social Services each assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their respective organizations.

Oversight notes that the above mentioned agencies have stated the proposal would not have a direct fiscal impact on their organization. Oversight does not have any information to the contrary. Therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for these agencies.

Officials from the Sturgeon R-V School District assume the proposal will have no fiscal impact on their organization.

In response to a similar proposal, HB 786 (2021), officials from the Springfield R-XII School District assumed the curriculum review and notification processes would cost $10,000.

In response to a similar proposal, HB 786 (2021), officials from the High Point R-III School District assumed the proposal would have no fiscal impact on their organization.

Oversight assumes school districts could electronically provide the described information and absorb costs related to curriculum review and notification; therefore, Oversight will reflect a zero impact in the fiscal note for school districts.

Oversight received a limited number of responses from school districts related to the fiscal impact of this proposal. Oversight has presented this fiscal note on the best current information available. Upon the receipt of additional responses, Oversight will review to determine if an updated fiscal note should be prepared and seek the necessary approval to publish a new fiscal note.

Oversight only reflects the responses received from state agencies and political subdivisions; however, other school districts were requested to respond to this proposed legislation but did not. A listing of political subdivisions included in the MOLIS database is available upon request.
