DANA RADEMAN MILLER, Chief Clerk

JOINT RESOLUTION

Submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment to Article X of the Constitution of Missouri, by adopting one new section relating to taxation.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring therein:

That at the next general election to be held in the state of Missouri, on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, 2024, or at a special election to be called by the governor for that purpose, there is hereby submitted to the qualified voters of this state, for adoption or rejection, the following amendment to Article X of the Constitution of the state of Missouri:

Section A. Article X, Constitution of Missouri, is amended by adopting one new section, to be known as Section 27, to read as follows:

Section 27. 1. For the purposes of this section, a "tax increase" is any increase in a tax rate or change in the person or items subject to tax without regard to any credits or deductions provided by state statute.

2. No tax imposed by state statute, or tax increase imposed by state statute shall go into effect or continue in effect if otherwise set to expire without prior approval at a statewide general election, as defined by state law.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of the constitution, no state funds shall be expended without first being appropriated by the legislature.

4. If any provision of this section conflicts with any other provision of the constitution, the provisions of this section shall apply.
