Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the state of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Section 575.150, RSMo, is repealed and one new section enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as section 575.150, to read as follows:

575.150. 1. A person commits the offense of resisting or interfering with arrest, detention, or stop if he or she knows or reasonably should know that a law enforcement officer is making an arrest or attempting to lawfully detain or stop an individual or vehicle, and for the purpose of preventing the officer from effecting the arrest, stop or detention, he or she:

(1) Resists the arrest, stop or detention of such person by using or threatening the use of violence or physical force or by fleeing from such officer; or

(2) Interferes with the arrest, stop or detention of another person by using or threatening the use of violence, physical force or physical interference.

2. This section applies to:

(1) Arrests, stops, or detentions, with or without warrants;

(2) Arrests, stops, or detentions, for any offense, infraction, or ordinance violation; and

(3) Arrests for warrants issued by a court or a probation and parole officer.

3. A person is presumed to be fleeing a vehicle stop if he or she continues to operate a motor vehicle after he or she has seen or should have seen clearly visible emergency lights or

17 has heard or should have heard an audible signal emanating from the law enforcement vehicle
18 pursuing him or her.

19 4. It is no defense to a prosecution pursuant to subsection 1 of this section that the law
20 enforcement officer was acting unlawfully in making the arrest. However, nothing in this
21 section shall be construed to bar civil suits for unlawful arrest.

22 5. The offense of resisting or interfering with an arrest is a class E felony for an arrest
23 for a:

24 (1) Felony;

25 (2) Warrant issued for failure to appear on a felony case; or

26 (3) Warrant issued for a probation violation on a felony case.

27

28 The offense of resisting an arrest, detention or stop in violation of subdivision (1) or (2) of 29 subsection 1 of this section is a class A misdemeanor, unless the person fleeing creates a
30 substantial risk of serious physical injury or death to any person, in which case it is a class E
31 felony. Any person who commits the offense of resisting an arrest, detention, or stop by 32 fleeing and creating a substantial risk of serious physical injury or death shall be 33 imprisoned for a minimum of two years.
