99 9. If the imposition or execution of a sentence is suspended, the court may order any 100 or all of the following restorative justice methods, or any other method that the court finds

116 judge shall not have any direct supervisory authority or administrative control over any fund
117 to which the judge is ordering a person to make payment.

118 12. A person who fails to make a payment to a county law enforcement restitution
119 fund may not have his or her probation revoked solely for failing to make such payment 120 unless the judge, after evidentiary hearing, makes a finding supported by a preponderance of 121 the evidence that the person either willfully refused to make the payment or that the person 122 willfully, intentionally, and purposefully failed to make sufficient bona fide efforts to acquire 123 the resources to pay.

124 13. Nothing in this section shall be construed to allow the sentencing advisory 125 commission to issue recommended sentences in specific cases pending in the courts of this 126 state.
