

JOURNAL OF THE HOUSE

First Regular Session, 102nd GENERAL ASSEMBLY

TWENTY-FOURTH DAY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 15, 2023

The House met pursuant to adjournment.

Speaker Pro Tem Henderson in the Chair.

Prayer by Reverend Monsignor Robert A. Kurwicki, Chaplain.

“Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man.” (Ecclesiastes 12:13)

O Creator who has made us and gives us this morning as a gift, we bow in Your presence at the beginning of another day to offer You the devotion of our hearts. Grant each one of us resources of spiritual power that we may not be overcome by stress but rising above it to make each day a triumph. Make us such radiant personalities and so filled with good will that we may commend to the world the faith we profess.

We pray for our citizens that they may grow in a sense of co-responsibility that may challenge us to be good stewards of our state.

And the House says, “Amen!”

The Pledge of Allegiance to the flag was recited.

The Speaker appointed the following to act as Honorary Pages for the Day, to serve without compensation: Saej Bader, Madelyn Barbagallo, Emma Breier, Elizabeth Dalton, Grace Lowery, Halayna Loyd, Kirstyn Loyd, Maclayne McPeters, Grace Neels, Isabella Price, Avery Richardson, Ava Roth, Paige Siebert, Megan Wood, Margaret Wrigley, and Jase Berry.

INTRODUCTION OF HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

Representative Butz introduced HCR 18, which was read the first time and copies ordered printed.

HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION NO. 18

Relating to the national day of the cowboy.

WHEREAS, Missouri's pioneering men and women, known as cowboys, helped establish America's frontier; and

WHEREAS, the first large-scale effort to drive cattle from Texas to the nearest railhead for shipment to Chicago occurred in 1866, when many Texas ranchers banded together to drive their cattle to the closest point that railroad tracks reached, which at that time was Sedalia, Missouri, now known as the Trail's End in Sedalia, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, the Kansas City Stockyards were established in 1871 in the West Bottoms, west of downtown Kansas City, and flourished until closing in 1991. The stockyards were built around the facilities of the Central Overland California and Pike's Peak Express Company, which had outfitted travelers on the Santa Fe Trail and Oregon Trail following the Kansas River. The company went out of business in 1862 following the failure of its Pony Express business from St. Joseph, Missouri, to Sacramento, California; and

WHEREAS, the stockyards and Hereford breeders began the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show in October of 1899 as the National Hereford Show, the first nationwide show for the exposition and sale of purebred cattle. In 1907, the first American Royal Horse Show was added and now includes five different shows, known as the Quarter Horse Show, the Hunter-Jumper Horse Show, the Arabian Horse Show, the Youth Horse Show, and the Cutting Horse Show. The American Royal is an annual eight-week season of barbecue competitions, rodeos, livestock shows, equestrian events, and agricultural activities benefitting youth and education; and

WHEREAS, in 1926, the American Royal began inviting vocational agriculture students to judge the livestock shows. During the 1928 American Royal, 33 of the students meeting at the Baltimore Hotel in downtown Kansas City formed the Future Farmers of America. Now, the National FFA Organization has 850,823 members; and

WHEREAS, the cowboy archetype transcends gender, generations, ethnicity, geographic boundaries, and political affiliations; and

WHEREAS, the cowboy embodies honesty, integrity, courage, compassion, and determination; and

WHEREAS, the cowboy vaquero spirit exemplifies patriotism and strength of character and is an excellent steward of the land and its creatures; and

WHEREAS, the core values expressed within the Cowboy Code of Conduct continue to inspire the pursuit of the highest caliber of personal integrity; and

WHEREAS, cowboy and ranching traditions have been part of the American landscape and culture since 1523, and today's cowboys continue to strive to preserve and perpetuate this unique element of America's heritage; and

WHEREAS, membership and participation in the National Day of the Cowboy Organization and other organizations that encompass the livelihood of the cowboy continue to expand both nationally and internationally; and

WHEREAS, the cowboy and his horse are a central figure in literature, art, film, poetry, photography, and music; and

WHEREAS, the cowboy is a true American icon occupying a central place in the public's imagination:

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the members of the House of Representatives of the One Hundred Second General Assembly, First Regular Session, the Senate concurring therein, hereby designate the fourth Saturday in July each year as "National Day of the Cowboy" in Missouri; and

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the General Assembly recommends to the citizens to observe the day with appropriate ceremonies and activities; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this resolution be sent to the Governor for his approval or rejection pursuant to the Missouri Constitution.
