

HB 792 -- CUSTODIAL INTERROGATIONS OF A MINOR

SPONSOR: Mackey

This bill makes any oral, written, or sign language confession of a child, defined as someone who was under 18 years old at the time of the offense, made during a custodial interrogation inadmissible as evidence against the child if the person involved in the custodial interrogation knowingly engaged in deception.

This bill is similar to HB 2330 (2022).