

HB 859 -- VOTER ELIGIBILITY

SPONSOR: Anderson

Currently, no person while on probation or parole after conviction of a felony shall be entitled to vote. This bill repeals the current prohibition on voting for individuals on probation or parole after conviction of a felony.

This bill is the same as HB 2500 (2022).