

HJR 66 -- ELECTIONS (Baker)

COMMITTEE OF ORIGIN: Special Committee on Public Policy

Upon voter approval, this Constitutional amendment specifies that only citizens of the United States are considered legal voters, that all elections shall be by paper ballot or any mechanical method prescribed by law, that voters are entitled to only one vote for each office or issue on a ballot, and that the candidate receiving the greatest number of votes in a primary election shall be the only candidate for that party in the following general election.
