A similar uninsured motorist diversion program was authorized by the Oklahoma legislature in 2016. In the first two years the diversion program was fully in effect, the number of uninsured drivers in Oklahoma decreased by more than 100,000. The Oklahoma office equivalent to the Missouri Office of Prosecution Services is responsible for the program and successfully implemented and oversees the program. HB 643 is an important step in decreasing the number of uninsured motorists in Missouri. Uninsured motorists burden insured drivers with the cost of property damage, medical bills, and higher insurance premiums as a result of accidents involving uninsured motorists.
