This bill 825 is really needed. It would help schools in having to have a person available to take filings when the schools are closed for the holidays. Second, since the schools are closed, they are not able to comply with Sunshine Law request, on who has filed for board seats before the closing date of filing for school board.

The Freedom Principle MO is in support of this bill. We believe in requiring school board candidates to file for the school board election. Since the role of the County Clerk is to oversee the local elections, requiring candidates to file with the county clerk will help streamline the process and allow a more transparent process for ensuring election integrity.
