30 in a public school program of academic instruction shall cause such child to attend the academic program on 31 a regular basis, according to this section. Nonattendance by such child shall cause such parent, guardian or 32 other responsible person to be in violation of the provisions of section 167.061, except as provided by this 33 section. A parent, guardian or other person in this state having charge, control, or custody of a child between 34 the ages of seven years of age and the compulsory attendance age for the district shall cause the child to 35 attend regularly some public, private, parochial, parish, home school, or FPE school, or a combination of 36 such schools not less than the entire school term of the school ~~[which]~~ that the child attends; except that:
37 ~~(+)~~ (a) A child who, to the satisfaction of the superintendent of public schools of the district in which ~~[he]~~ 38 such child resides, or if there is no superintendent then the chief school officer, is determined to be mentally 39 or physically incapacitated may be excused from attendance at school for the full time required, or any part 40 thereof;

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 ~~[(2)]~~ (b) A child between fourteen years of age and the compulsory attendance age for the district may be
 2 excused from attendance at school for the full time required, or any part thereof, by the superintendent of 3 public schools of the district, or if there is none then by a court of competent jurisdiction, when legal 4 employment has been obtained by the child and found to be desirable, and after the parents or guardian of the 5 child have been advised of the pending action; or

6 ~~[(3)]~~ (c) A child between five and seven years of age shall be excused from attendance at school if a parent,
 7 guardian, or other person having charge, control, or custody of the child makes a written request that the child
 8 be dropped from the school's rolls; or

9 (d) A child may be excused from attendance at school for the full time required, or any part thereof,
 10 if the child is unable to attend school due to mental or behavioral health concerns, provided that the school 11 receives documentation from a mental health professional licensed under chapters 334 or 337 acting within 12 his or her authorized scope of practice stating that the child is not able to attend school due to such concerns.

13 2. (1) As used in sections 167.031 to ~~[167.071]~~167.061, a "home school" is a school, whether 14 incorporated or unincorporated, that:

15 (a) Has as its primary purpose the provision of private or religious-based instruction;

16 (b) Enrolls pupils between the ages of seven years and the compulsory attendance age for the 17 district, of which no more than four are unrelated by affinity or consanguinity in the third degree; ~~and~~

18 (c) Does not charge or receive consideration in the form of tuition, fees, or other remuneration in a 19 genuine and fair exchange for provision of instruction;

20 (d) Does not enroll children who participate in the program established in sections 135.712 to 21 135.719 and sections 166.700 to 166.720; and

22 (e) Is not an FPE school.

23 (2) As evidence that a child is receiving regular instruction, the parent shall, except as otherwise 24 provided in this subsection:

25 (a) Maintain the following records:

26 a. A plan book, diary, or other written record indicating subjects taught and activities engaged in;
 27 and

28 b. A portfolio of samples of the child's academic work; and

29 c. A record of evaluations of the child's academic progress; or 30 d. Other written, or credible evidence equivalent to subparagraphs a., b. and c.; and

31 (b) Offer at least one thousand hours of instruction, at least six hundred hours of which will be in 32 reading, language arts, mathematics, social studies and science or academic courses that are related to the 33 aforementioned subject areas and consonant with the pupil's age and ability. At least four hundred of the six 34 hundred hours shall occur at the regular home school location.

35 (3) The requirements of subdivision (2) of this subsection shall not apply to any pupil above the age 36 of sixteen years.

37 3. Nothing in this section shall require a private, parochial, parish ~~[or]~~, home school, or FPE school 38 to include in its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice in conflict with the school's religious doctrines or 39 to exclude from its curriculum any concept, topic, or practice consistent with the school's religious doctrines.
 40 Any other provision of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, all departments or agencies of the state of 41 Missouri shall be prohibited from dictating through rule, regulation or other device any statewide curriculum
 42 for private, parochial, parish ~~[or]~~, home schools, or FPE schools.

43 4. A school year begins on the first day of July and ends on the thirtieth day of June following.

44 5. The production by a parent of a daily log showing that a home school has a course of instruction 45 which satisfies the requirements of this section or, in the case of a pupil over the age of sixteen years who 46 attended a metropolitan school district the previous year, a written statement that the pupil is attending home 47 school in compliance with this section shall be a defense to any prosecution under this section and to any 48 charge or action for educational neglect brought pursuant to chapter 210.

49 6. As used in sections 167.031 to 167.051, the term "compulsory attendance age for the district"
 50 shall mean:

51 (1) Seventeen years of age for any metropolitan school district for which the school board adopts a 52 resolution to establish such compulsory attendance age; provided that such resolution shall take effect no 53 earlier than the school year next following the school year during which the resolution is adopted; and

1 (2) Seventeen years of age or having successfully completed sixteen credits towards high school
2 graduation in all other cases.

4 The school board of a metropolitan school district for which the compulsory attendance age is seventeen
5 years may adopt a resolution to lower the compulsory attendance age to sixteen years; provided that such 6 resolution shall take effect no earlier than the school year next following the school year during which the 7 resolution is adopted.

8 7. For purposes of subsection 2 of this section as applied in subsection 6 herein or FPE school credits
9 toward high school graduation, a "completed credit towards high school graduation" shall be defined as one
10 hundred hours or more of instruction in a course. Home school and FPE school education enforcement and 11 records pursuant to this section, and sections 210.167 and 211.031, shall be subject to review only by the 12 local prosecuting attorney only if f there is probable cause to believe that a violation of this section has 13 occurred.

14 167.032. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if an agent of a public school, school 15 district, or school board or any state agency, political subdivision, or other public governmental body, as such 16 term is defined in section 610.010, possesses any individually identifiable information about a child receiving 17 instruction in a home school or a family paced education school, such information shall remain confidential, 18 shall not be posted or published in any format or medium, and shall not be disclosed to any other person or 19 entity without the written consent of:

20 (1) The child, if the child is eighteen years of age or older; or

21 (2) The custodial parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian of the child, if the child is under 22 eighteen years of age.

23 2. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if an agent of a public school, school district, or 24 school board or any state agency, political subdivision, or other public governmental body, as such term is 25 defined in section 610.010, possesses any individually identifiable information about the custodial parent,
26 legal guardian, or legal custodian of the child, if the child is under eighteen years of age, receiving instruction
27 in a home school or a family paced education school, such information shall remain confidential, shall not be 28 posted or published in any format or medium, and shall not be disclosed to any other person or entity without 29 the written consent of the custodial parent, legal guardian, or legal custodian of the child.

30 3. A public school, school district, school board, state agency, political subdivision, or any 31 other public governmental body, as such term is defined in section 610.010, shall not create or maintain a list
