4 "217.690. 1. All releases or paroles shall issue upon order of the parole board, duly 5 adopted.

6 2. Before ordering the parole of any offender, the parole board shall conduct a validated risk
7 and needs assessment and evaluate the case under the rules governing parole that are promulgated
8 by the parole board. The parole board shall then have the offender appear before a hearing panel 9 and shall conduct a personal interview with him or her, unless waived by the offender, or if the 10 guidelines indicate the offender may be paroled without need for an interview. The guidelines and 11 rules shall not allow for the waiver of a hearing if a victim requests a hearing. The appearance or 12 presence may occur by means of a videoconference at the discretion of the parole board. A parole 13 may be ordered for the best interest of society when there is a reasonable probability, based on the 14 risk assessment and indicators of release readiness, that the person can be supervised under parole 15 supervision and successfully reintegrated into the community, not as an award of clemency; it shall 16 not be considered a reduction of sentence or a pardon. Every offender while on parole shall remain 17 in the legal custody of the department but shall be subject to the orders of the parole board.

18 3. The division of probation and parole has discretionary authority to require the payment of 19 a fee, not to exceed sixty dollars per month, from every offender placed under division supervision 20 on probation, parole, or conditional release, to waive all or part of any fee, to sanction offenders for 21 willful nonpayment of fees, and to contract with a private entity for fee collections services. No 22 such fee shall be levied or accrue for the first ninety days the offender is on probation, parole, or 23 conditional release. All fees collected shall be deposited in the inmate fund established in section 24 217.430. Fees collected may be used to pay the costs of contracted collections services. The fees 25 collected may otherwise be used to provide community corrections and intervention services for 26 offenders. Such services include substance abuse assessment and treatment, mental health 27 assessment and treatment, electronic monitoring services, residential facilities services, employment 28 placement services, and other offender community corrections or intervention services designated 29 by the division of probation and parole to assist offenders to successfully complete probation, 30 parole, or conditional release. The division of probation and parole shall adopt rules not 31 inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 217.040, with respect to sanctioning offenders and 32 with respect to establishing, waiving, collecting, and using fees.

33 4. The parole board shall adopt rules not inconsistent with law, in accordance with section 34 217.040, with respect to the eligibility of offenders for parole, the conduct of parole hearings or 35 conditions to be imposed upon paroled offenders. Whenever an order for parole is issued it shall 36 recite the conditions of such parole.

Action Taken _____ Date _____

1 5. When considering parole for an offender with consecutive sentences, the minimum term 2 for eligibility for parole shall be calculated by adding the minimum terms for parole eligibility for 3 each of the consecutive sentences, except the minimum term for parole eligibility shall not exceed 4 the minimum term for parole eligibility for an ordinary life sentence.

5 6. Any offender sentenced to a term of imprisonment amounting to fifteen years or more or 6 multiple terms of imprisonment that, taken together, amount to fifteen or more years who was under 7 eighteen years of age at the time of the commission of the offense or offenses may be eligible for 8 parole after serving fifteen years of incarceration, regardless of whether the case is final for the 9 purposes of appeal, and may be eligible for reconsideration hearings in accordance with regulations 10 promulgated by the parole board.

11 7. The provisions of subsection 6 of this section shall not apply to an offender found guilty 12 of murder in the first degree or capital murder who was under eighteen years of age when the 13 offender committed the offense or offenses who may be found ineligible for parole or whose parole
14 eligibility may be controlled by section 558.047 or 565.033.

15 8. Any offender under a sentence for first degree murder who has been denied release on 16 parole after a parole hearing shall not be eligible for another parole hearing until at least three years 17 from the month of the parole denial; however, this subsection shall not prevent a release pursuant to 18 subsection 4 of section 558.011.

19 9. A victim who has requested an opportunity to be heard shall receive notice that the parole 20 board is conducting an assessment of the offender's risk and readiness for release and that the 21 victim's input will be particularly helpful when it pertains to safety concerns and specific protective 22 measures that may be beneficial to the victim should the offender be granted release.

23 10. Parole hearings shall, at a minimum, contain the following procedures:

24 (1) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing may be accompanied 25 by one other person;

26 (2) The victim or person representing the victim who attends a hearing shall have the option
27 of giving testimony in the presence of the inmate or to the hearing panel without the inmate being 28 present;

29 (3) The victim or person representing the victim may call or write the parole board rather 30 than attend the hearing;

31 (4) The victim or person representing the victim may have a personal meeting with a parole
32 board member at the parole board's central office;

33 (5) The judge, prosecuting attorney or circuit attorney and a representative of the local law 34 enforcement agency investigating the crime shall be allowed to attend the hearing or provide 35 information to the hearing panel in regard to the parole consideration; and

36 (6) The parole board shall evaluate information listed in the juvenile sex offender registry 37 pursuant to section 211.425, provided the offender is between the ages of seventeen and twenty-one,
38 as it impacts the safety of the community.

39 11. The parole board shall notify any person of the results of a parole eligibility hearing if 40 the person indicates to the parole board a desire to be notified.

41 12. The parole board may, at its discretion, require any offender seeking parole to meet 42 certain conditions during the term of that parole so long as said conditions are not illegal or 43 impossible for the offender to perform. These conditions may include an amount of restitution to 44 the state for the cost of that offender's incarceration.

45 13. Special parole conditions shall be responsive to the assessed risk and needs of the 46 offender or the need for extraordinary supervision, such as electronic monitoring. The parole board 47 shall adopt rules to minimize the conditions placed on low-risk cases, to frontload conditions upon 48 release, and to require the modification and reduction of conditions based on the person's continuing 49 stability in the community. Parole board rules shall permit parole conditions to be modified by

1 parole officers with review and approval by supervisors.

2 14. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to require the release of an offender
3 on parole nor to reduce the sentence of an offender heretofore committed.

4 15. Beginning January 1, 2001, the parole board shall not order a parole unless the offender
5 has obtained a high school diploma or its equivalent, or unless the parole board is satisfied that the 6 offender, while committed to the custody of the department, has made an honest good-faith effort to 7 obtain a high school diploma or its equivalent; provided that the director may waive this 8 requirement by certifying in writing to the parole board that the offender has actively participated in 9 mandatory education programs or is academically unable to obtain a high school diploma or its 10 equivalent.

11 16. Any rule or portion of a rule, as that term is defined in section 536.010, that is created 12 under the authority delegated in this section shall become effective only if it complies with and is 13 subject to all of the provisions of chapter 536 and, if applicable, section 536.028. This section and 14 chapter 536 are nonseverable and if any of the powers vested with the general assembly pursuant to 15 chapter 536 to review, to delay the effective date, or to disapprove and annul a rule are subsequently 16 held unconstitutional, then the grant of rulemaking authority and any rule proposed or adopted after 17 August 28, 2005, shall be invalid and void."; and
