END House Bill No. 2082, Page 2, Section 376.1850, Line 38, by inserting after all of said on and line the following: "571.070. 1. A person commits the offense of unlawful possession of a firearm if such on knowingly has any firearm in his or her possession and: (1) Such person has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of a crime or the laws of any state or of the United States which, if committed within this state, would be any; [or] (2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, the ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm: (a) While accompanied by a person twenty-one years of age or older;
on knowingly has any firearm in his or her possession and: (1) Such person has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of a crime or the laws of any state or of the United States which, if committed within this state, would be any; [of] (2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
on knowingly has any firearm in his or her possession and: (1) Such person has been convicted of a felony under the laws of this state, or of a crime or the laws of any state or of the United States which, if committed within this state, would be any; [of] (2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
r the laws of any state or of the United States which, if committed within this state, would be ay; [or] (2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
(2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
(2) Such person is a fugitive from justice, is habitually in an intoxicated or drugged ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
ition, or is currently adjudged mentally incompetent; or (3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
(3) Such person is under eighteen years of age and is on public property. However, ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
ession under this subdivision is not an offense if such person possesses the firearm:
(a) While accompanied by a person twenty-one years of age or older:
(a) while accompanied by a person twenty one years of age of order,
(b) For the purposes of a school-sanctioned, firearm-related event or club event;
(c) For the lawful pursuit of game; or
(d) As otherwise authorized by law.
2. Unlawful possession of a firearm is a class D felony, unless a person has been convict dangerous felony as defined in section 556.061, in which case it is a class C felony.
3. The provisions of subdivision (1) of subsection 1 of this section shall not apply to the ession of an antique firearm."; and ner amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references rdingly.