11 You shall not have in your custody or control, or purchase, possess, receive, or attempt to purchase 12 or receive, a firearm or ammunition while this order is in effect. You have the right to request one 13 hearing to vacate this order, starting after the date of the issuance of this order, and to request 14 another hearing after every extension of the order, if any. You may seek the advice of an attorney as 15 to any matter connected with this order."

16           (8) If the court issues a risk protection order, the court shall inform the respondent that he or 17 she is entitled to request a hearing to vacate the order in the manner provided by subsection 6 of this 18 section. The court shall provide the respondent with a form to request a hearing to vacate.

19           (9) If the court denies the petitioner's request for a risk protection order, the court shall state 20 the particular reasons for the denial.

21           4. (1) A petitioner may request that a temporary ex parte risk protection order be issued 22 before a hearing for a risk protection order, without notice to the respondent, by including in the 26           (2) In considering whether to issue a temporary ex parte risk protection order under this 27 section, the court shall consider all relevant evidence, including any evidence described under 28 subdivision (3) of subsection 3 of this section.

29           (3) If a court finds reasonable cause to believe that the respondent poses a significant danger 30 of causing personal injury to himself or herself or others in the near future by having in his or her 31 custody or control, or by purchasing, possessing, or receiving, a firearm or ammunition, the court 32 shall issue a temporary ex parte risk protection order.

33           (4) The court shall hold a temporary ex parte risk protection order hearing in person or by 34 telephone on the day the petition is filed or on the business day immediately following the day the 35 petition is filed.

36           (5) A temporary ex parte risk protection order shall include all of the following:

37           (a) A statement of the grounds asserted for the order;

4           (f) The following statement: "To the subject of this protection order: This order is valid until 5 the date noted above. You are required to surrender all firearms and ammunition that you own in

7 possess, receive, or attempt to purchase or receive, a firearm or ammunition while this order is in 8 effect. You shall surrender immediately to the _____ (insert name of local law enforcement 9 agency) all firearms and ammunition in your custody, control, or possession and any permit to carry 10 a concealed weapon or firearm issued to you under sections 571.101 to 571.126, RSMo, or sections 11 571.205 to 571.230, RSMo. A hearing will be held on the date and at the time noted above to 12 determine if a risk protection order should be issued. Failure to appear at that hearing may result in 13 a court issuing an order against you which is valid for one year. You may seek the advice of an 14 attorney as to any matter connected with this order."

15           (6) A temporary ex parte risk protection order ends upon the hearing on the risk protection 16 order.

17           (7) A temporary ex parte risk protection order shall be served by a law enforcement officer 18 in the same manner as provided for in subsection 5 of this section for service of the notice of hearing 19 and petition and shall be served concurrently with the notice of hearing and petition.

20           (8) If the court denies the petitioner's request for a temporary ex parte risk protection order, 21 the court shall state the particular reasons for the denial.

22           5. (1) The clerk of the court shall furnish a copy of the notice of hearing, petition, and 23 temporary ex parte risk protection order or risk protection order, as applicable, to the sheriff of the 24 county in which the respondent resides or can be found, who shall serve it upon the respondent as 25 soon thereafter as practicable on any day of the week and at any time of the day or night. When 26 requested by the sheriff, the clerk of the court may transmit a facsimile copy of a temporary ex parte 27 risk protection order or a risk protection order that has been certified by the clerk of the court, and 28 this facsimile copy may be served in the same manner as a certified copy. Upon receiving a 29 facsimile copy, the sheriff shall verify receipt with the sender before attempting to serve it upon the 30 respondent. The clerk of the court shall be responsible for furnishing to the sheriff information on 31 the respondent's physical description and location. Notwithstanding any other law to the contrary, 32 the chief judge of each circuit, in consultation with the appropriate sheriff, may authorize a law
33 enforcement agency within the jurisdiction to effect service. A law enforcement agency effecting 34 service in accordance with this section shall use service and verification procedures consistent with 35 those of the sheriff. Service under this section takes precedence over the service of other documents 36 unless the other documents are of a similar emergency nature.

37           (2) All orders issued, changed, continued, extended, or vacated after the original service of 38 documents specified in subdivision (1) of this subsection shall be certified by the clerk of the court 39 and delivered to the parties at the time of the entry of the order. The parties may acknowledge

1 receipt of such order in writing on the face of the original order. If a party fails or refuses to 2 acknowledge the receipt of a certified copy of an order, the clerk shall note on the original order that 3 service was effected. If delivery at the hearing is not possible, the clerk shall mail certified copies of 4 the order to the parties at the last known address of each party. Service by mail is complete upon 5 mailing. If an order is served in accordance with this subsection, the clerk shall prepare a written 6 certification to be placed in the court file specifying the time, date, and method of service and shall 7 notify the sheriff.

8 6. (1) The respondent may submit one written request for a hearing to vacate a risk 9 protection order issued under this section, starting after the date of the issuance of the order, and 10 may request another hearing after every extension of the order, if any. Regarding the request:

11 (a) Upon receipt of a request for a hearing to vacate a risk protection order, the court shall 12 set a date for a hearing. Notice of the request shall be served on the petitioner in accordance with 13 subsection 5 of this section. The hearing shall occur no sooner than fourteen days and no later than 14 thirty days after the date of service of the request upon the petitioner;

15 (b) The respondent shall have the burden of proving by clear and convincing evidence that 16 the respondent does not pose a significant danger of causing personal injury to himself or herself or 17 others by having in his or her custody or control, purchasing, possessing, or receiving a firearm or 18 ammunition. The court may consider any relevant evidence, including evidence of the 19 considerations listed in subdivision (3) of subsection 3 of this section;

20 (c) If the court finds after the hearing that the respondent has met his or her burden of proof, 21 the court shall vacate the order; and 22 (d) The law enforcement agency holding any firearm or ammunition or permit to carry a 23 concealed weapon or firearm that has been surrendered in accordance with this section shall be 24 notified of the court order to vacate the risk protection order.

25 (2) The court shall notify the petitioner of any impending end of a risk protection order.
26 Notice shall be received by the petitioner at least thirty days before the date the order ends.

27 (3) The petitioner may, by motion, request an extension of a risk protection order at any 28 time within the thirty days before the order ends. If the petitioner does so:

29 (a) Upon receipt of the motion to extend, the court shall order that a hearing be held no later 30 than fourteen days after the date the order is issued and shall schedule such hearing, and:

31 a. The court may schedule a hearing by telephone in the manner provided under paragraph 32 (c) of subdivision (1) of subsection 3 of this section; and 33 b. The respondent shall be personally served in the same manner provided by subsection 5 34 of this section;

35 (b) In determining whether to extend a risk protection order issued under this section, the 36 court may consider all relevant evidence, including evidence of the considerations listed in 37 subdivision (3) of subsection 3 of this section;

38 (c) If the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the requirements for issuance of 39 a risk protection order as provided in subsection 3 of this section continue to be met, the court shall

1 extend the order. However, if, after notice, the motion for extension is uncontested and no 2 modification of the order is sought, the order may be extended on the basis of a motion or affidavit 3 stating that there has been no material change in relevant circumstances since entry of the order and 4 stating the reason for the requested extension; and

5 (d) The court may extend a risk protection order for a period that it deems appropriate, up to 6 but not exceeding twelve months, subject to an order to vacate as provided in subdivision (1) of this 7 subsection or to another extension order by the court.

8 7. (1) Upon issuance of a risk protection order under this section, including a temporary ex 9 parte risk protection order, the court shall order the respondent to surrender to the local law 10 enforcement agency all firearms and ammunition owned by the respondent in the respondent's 11 custody, control, or possession, except as provided in subsection 9 of this section, and any permit to 12 carry a concealed weapon or firearm issued under sections 571.101 to 571.126 or sections 571.205 13 to 571.230 held by the respondent.

14 (2) The law enforcement officer serving a risk protection order under this section, including 15 a temporary ex parte risk protection order, shall request that the respondent immediately surrender 16 all firearms and ammunition owned by the respondent in his or her custody, control, or possession 17 and any permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm issued under sections 571.101 to 571.126 or 18 sections 571.205 to 571.230 held by the respondent. The law enforcement officer shall take 19 possession of all firearms and ammunition and any permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm 20 that the respondent surrenders. Alternatively, if personal service by a law enforcement officer is not 21 possible or is not required because the respondent was present at the risk protection order hearing, 22 the respondent shall surrender any firearms and ammunition owned by the respondent, and any 23 permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm issued under sections 571.101 to 571.126 or sections 24 571.205 to 571.230 held by the respondent, in a safe manner to the control of the local law 25 enforcement agency immediately after being served with the order by service or immediately after 26 the hearing at which the respondent was present. Notwithstanding section 542.271, a law 27 enforcement officer may seek a search warrant from a court of competent jurisdiction to conduct a 28 search for firearms or ammunition owned by the respondent if the officer has probable cause to 29 believe that there are firearms or ammunition owned by the respondent in the respondent's custody, 30 control, or possession that have not been surrendered.

31 (3) At the time of surrender, a law enforcement officer taking possession of any firearm or 32 ammunition owned by the respondent, or a permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm issued 33 under sections 571.101 to 571.126 or sections 571.205 to 571.230 held by the respondent, shall issue 34 a receipt identifying all firearms and the quantity and type of ammunition that have been 35 surrendered and any permit surrendered and shall provide a copy of the receipt to the respondent.
36 Within seventy-two hours after service of the order, the law enforcement officer serving the order 37 shall file the original receipt with the court and shall ensure that his or her law enforcement agency 38 retains a copy of the receipt.

1           (4) Notwithstanding section 542.271, upon the sworn statement or testimony of any person 2 alleging that the respondent has failed to comply with the surrender of firearms or ammunition 3 owned by the respondent, as required by an order issued under this section, the court shall determine 4 whether probable cause exists to believe that the respondent has failed to surrender all firearms or 5 ammunition owned by the respondent in the respondent's custody, control, or possession. If the 6 court finds that probable cause exists, the court shall issue a warrant describing the firearms or 7 ammunition owned by the respondent and authorizing a search of the locations where the firearms 8 or ammunition owned by the respondent are reasonably believed to be found and the seizure of any 9 firearms or ammunition owned by the respondent discovered pursuant to such search.

10           (5) If a person other than the respondent claims title to any firearms or ammunition 11 surrendered in accordance with this section and he or she is determined by the law enforcement 12 agency to be the lawful owner of the firearm or ammunition, the firearm or ammunition shall be 13 returned to him or her if:

14           (a) The lawful owner agrees to store the firearm or ammunition in a manner such that the 15 respondent does not have access to or control of the firearm or ammunition; and 16           (b) The firearm or ammunition is not otherwise unlawfully possessed by the owner.

17           (6) Upon the issuance of a risk protection order, the court shall order a new hearing date and 18 require the respondent to appear no later than three business days after the issuance of the order.
19 The court shall require proof that the respondent has surrendered any firearms or ammunition owned 20 by the respondent in the respondent's custody, control, or possession. The court may cancel the 21 hearing upon a satisfactory showing that the respondent is in compliance with the order.

22           (7) All law enforcement agencies shall develop policies and procedures regarding the 23 acceptance, storage, and return of firearms, ammunition, or permits required to be surrendered under 24 this section.

25           8. (1) If a risk protection order is vacated or ends without extension, a law enforcement 26 agency holding a firearm or any ammunition owned by the respondent, or a permit to carry a 27 concealed weapon or firearm issued under sections 571.101 to 571.126 or sections 571.205 to 28 571.230 held by the respondent, that has been surrendered or seized in accordance with this section 29 shall return such surrendered firearm, ammunition, or permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm 30 issued under sections 571.101 to 571.126 or sections 571.205 to 571.230, as requested by a 31 respondent, only after confirming through a background check that the respondent is currently 32 eligible to own or possess firearms and ammunition under federal and state law and after confirming 33 with the court that the risk protection order has been vacated or has ended without extension.

34           (2) If a risk protection order is vacated or ends without extension and the sheriff that issued 35 the concealed carry permit has suspended a permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm in 36 accordance with this section, the sheriff shall reinstate such permit only after confirming that the 37 respondent is currently eligible to have a permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm under 38 sections 571.101 to 571.126 or sections 571.205 to 571.230.

1           (3) A law enforcement agency shall provide notice to any family or household members of 2 the respondent before the return of any surrendered firearm and ammunition owned by the 3 respondent.

4           (4) Any firearm and ammunition surrendered by a respondent in accordance with subsection 5 7 of this section that remains unclaimed for one year by the lawful owner after an order to vacate the 6 risk protection order shall be disposed of in accordance with the law enforcement agency's policies 7 and procedures for the disposal of firearms in police custody.

8           9. A respondent may elect to transfer all firearms and ammunition owned by the respondent 9 that have been surrendered to or seized by a local law enforcement agency in accordance with 10 subsection 7 of this section to another person who is willing to receive the respondent's firearms and 11 ammunition. The law enforcement agency shall allow such a transfer only if it is determined that 12 the chosen recipient:

13           (1) Currently is eligible to own or possess a firearm and ammunition under federal and state 14 law after confirmation through a background check;

15           (2) Attests to storing the firearms and ammunition in a manner such that the respondent does 16 not have access to or control of the firearms and ammunition until the risk protection order against 17 the respondent is vacated or ends without extension; and

18           (3) Attests not to transfer the firearms or ammunition back to the respondent until the risk 19 protection order against the respondent is vacated or ends without extension.

20           10. (1) Within twenty-four hours after issuance, the clerk of the court shall enter any risk 21 protection order or temporary ex parte risk protection order issued under this section into the 22 uniform crime reporting system.

23           (2) Within twenty-four hours after issuance, the clerk of the court shall forward a copy of an 24 order issued under this section to the appropriate law enforcement agency specified in the order.
25 Upon receipt of the copy of the order, the law enforcement agency shall enter the order into the 26 Missouri uniform law enforcement system (MULES) and the National Crime Information Center 27 (NCIC). The order shall remain in each system for the period stated in the order, and the law 28 enforcement agency shall only remove an order from the systems that has ended or been vacated.
29 Entry of the order into the MULES and NCIC constitutes notice to all law enforcement agencies of 30 the existence of the order. The order is fully enforceable in any county in this state.

31           (3) The issuing court shall, within three business days after issuance of a risk protection 32 order or temporary ex parte risk protection order, forward all available identifying information 33 concerning the respondent, along with the date of order issuance, to the sheriff of the county in 34 which the respondent resides. Upon receipt of the information, the sheriff shall determine if the 35 respondent has a permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm. If the respondent does have a 36 permit to carry a concealed weapon or firearm, the sheriff shall immediately suspend the permit.

37           (4) If a risk protection order is vacated before its end date, the clerk of the court shall, on the 38 day of the order to vacate, forward a copy of the order to the sheriff of the county in which the 39 respondent resides and any other law enforcement agency specified in the order to vacate. Upon

1 receipt of the order, the law enforcement agency shall promptly remove the order from any 2 computer-based system in which it was entered under subdivision (2) of this subsection.

3 11. (1) A person who makes a false statement, which he or she does not believe to be true,
4 under oath in a hearing under this section in regard to any material matter is guilty of a class E 5 felony.

6 (2) A person who has in his or her custody or control a firearm or any ammunition or who
