9 ~~souvenirs;] is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction for the first offense be sentenced to 10 pay a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars, and for the second or any subsequent offense be 11 sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding two hundred dollars or undergo confinement not exceeding 12 thirty days in the county jail in default thereof.~~

13 2. Each separate sale or offer to sell shall constitute a separate offense.

14 3. Information charging violations of this section shall be brought within five days after the 15 commission of the alleged offense and not thereafter.

16 4. The operation of any place of business where any [~~goods, wares or merchandise~~] motor 17 vehicles are sold or exposed for sale in violation of this section is hereby declared to be a public and 18 common nuisance.

19 5. Any county of this state containing all or part of a city with a population of over four 20 hundred thousand may exempt itself from the application of this section by submission of the 21 proposition to the voters of the county at a general election or a special election called for that 22 purpose, and the proposition receiving a majority of the votes cast therein. The proposal to exempt
23 the county from the provisions of this section shall be submitted to the voters of the county upon a 24 majority vote of the governing body of the county or when a petition requesting the submission of 25 the proposal to the voters and signed by a number of qualified voters residing in the county equal to 26 eight percent of the votes cast in the county in the next preceding gubernatorial election is filed with 27 the governing body of the county. The ballot of submission shall contain, but not be limited to, the 28 following language:

29
30  FOR the exemption of _____ County from the Sunday sales law

31  AGAINST the exemption of _____ County from the Sunday sales law

32
33
34 If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon in the county
35 are in favor of the proposal, then the provisions of this section shall no longer apply within that 36 county. If a majority of the votes cast on the proposal by the qualified voters voting thereon in the

1 county are opposed to the proposal, then the provisions of this section shall continue to apply and be 2 enforced within that county. The exemption of any county from the provisions of this section shall 3 not become effective in that county until the results of the vote exempting the county have been 4 filed with the secretary of state and with the revisor of statutes and have been certified as received
5 by those officers. The revisor of statutes shall note which counties are exempt from the provisions
6 of this section in the Missouri revised statutes.

7 6. In addition to any other method of exemption provided by law, the governing body of any 8 county of this state may exempt itself from the application of this section by order or ordinance of 9 the governing body of the county after public hearing upon the matter. Such public hearing shall be 10 preceded by public notice which shall, at a minimum, be published at least three different times in 11 the newspaper with the greatest circulation in the county. Upon such order or ordinance becoming 12 effective, such county shall be exempt from the provisions of this section and no election or other 13 method of exemption shall be required. The exemption of any county from the provisions of this 14 section by order or ordinance shall not become effective in that county until the order or ordinance 15 has been filed with the secretary of state and the revisor of statutes and has been certified as 16 received by those officers. The revisor of statutes shall note which counties are exempt from the 17 provisions of this section in the Missouri revised statutes."; and

18
19 Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references 20 accordingly.
