Offered By
AMEND House Committee Substitute for House Bill No. 2905, Page 1, Section A, Line 2, by inserting after all of said section and line the following:
"33.080. 1. All fees, funds and moneys from whatsoever source received by any department, board, bureau, commission, institution, official or agency of the state government by virtue of any law or rule or regulation made in accordance with any law, excluding all funds received and disbursed by the state on behalf of counties and cities, towns and villages shall, by the official authorized to receive same, and at stated intervals of not more than thirty days, be placed in the state treasury to the credit of the particular purpose or fund for which collected, and shall be subject to appropriation by the general assembly for the particular purpose or fund for which collected during the biennium in which collected and appropriated. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 of this section, the unexpended balance remaining in all such funds (except such unexpended balance as may remain in any fund authorized, collected and expended by virtue of the provisions of the constitution of this state) shall at the end of the biennium and after all warrants on same have been discharged and the appropriation thereof has lapsed, be transferred and placed to the credit of the general revenue fund of the state by the state treasurer. Any official or any person who shall willfully fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section, and any person who shall willfully violate any provision hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; provided, that all such money received by the curators of the University of Missouri except those funds required by law or by instrument granting the same to be paid into the seminary fund of the state, is excepted herefrom, and in the case of other state educational institutions there is excepted herefrom, gifts or trust funds from whatever source; appropriations; gifts or grants from the federal government, private organizations and individuals; funds for or from student activities; farm or housing activities; and other funds from which the whole or some part thereof may be liable to be repaid to the person contributing the same; and hospital fees. All of the above excepted funds shall be reported in detail quarterly to the governor and biennially to the general assembly.
[2.Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary concerning the transfer of funds, ten million dollars shall be transferred from the insurance dedicated fund established under section 374.150, and placed to the credit of the rebuild damaged infrastructure fund created in section 33.295 on July 1, 2013.]
Action Taken Date

2. (1) As used in this subsection, "excluding provision" means a provision included in legislation creating a new fund specifying that, notwithstanding the provisions of this section to the contrary, moneys remaining in the fund at the end of the biennium shall not revert to the credit of the general revenue fund.

1 2

- (2) No excluding provision shall be enforceable unless such excluding provision is approved by the general assembly as provided in subdivision (3) of this subsection.
- (3) Each chamber of the general assembly shall present to the members elected to the chamber the question of whether to approve an excluding provision in legislation under consideration by the chamber. If at least two-thirds of the members elected to the chamber are in favor of the question, the excluding provision shall be considered approved by the chamber. If the vote on the excluding provision does not receive the approval of at least two-thirds of the members of the chamber, the excluding provision shall not be considered approved by the chamber.
- (4) A question to approve an excluding provision under this subsection shall be voted on by a roll call vote.
- (5) The general assembly shall remove an unapproved excluding provision from legislation under consideration before such legislation is truly agreed to and finally passed.
- (6) This subsection shall apply to legislation taken up for consideration by the general assembly after January 1, 2025."; and Further amend said bill by amending the title, enacting clause, and intersectional references accordingly.
